The Dresser Script:

The Dresser (screenplay) Ronald Harwood, 1987      Backstory 5 Patrick McGilligan, 2009-10-27 Patrick McGilligan continues his celebrated interviews with exceptional screenwriters in Backstory 5 focusing on the 1990s. The thirteen featured writers Albert Brooks, Jean-Claude Carrière, Nora Ephron, Ronald Harwood, John Hughes, David Koepp, Richard LaGravenese, Barry Levinson, Eric Roth, John Sayles, Tom Stoppard, Barbara Turner, and Rudy Wurlitzer are not confined to the 1990s but their engrossing detailed and richly personal stories create in McGilligan's words a snapshot of a profession in motion. Emphasizing the craft of writing and the process of collaboration, this new volume looks at how Hollywood is changing to meet new economic and creative challenges. Backstory 5 explores how these writers come up with their ideas, how they go about adapting a stage play or work of fiction, how they organize and structure their work, and much more.      Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video David K. Irving, Peter W. Rea, 2012-11-12 Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video is the definitive book on the subject for beginning filmmakers and students. The book clearly illustrates all of the steps involved in preproduction, production, postproduction, and distribution. Its unique two-fold approach looks at filmmaking from the perspectives of both producer and director and explains how their separate energies must combine to create a successful short film or video from script to final product. This guide offers extensive examples from award-winning shorts and includes insightful quotes from the filmmakers themselves describing the problems they encountered and how they solved them. The companion website contains useful forms and information on grants and financing, sources, distributors, film and video festivals, film schools, internet sources for short works, and professional associations.      The Dresser Ronald Harwood, 1980 A dramatized account of the author's relationship with the actor-manager Donald Wolfit.      Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video Peter W. Rea, David K. Irving, 2010 Producing and Directing the Short Film and Video Fourth Edition is the definitive book on the subject for beginning filmmakers and students. It clearly illustrates all of the steps involved in preproduction, production, postproduction, and distribution and uses a unique two-fold approach to break down filmmaking from the perspectives of both the producer and director. Extensive examples from award-winning shorts show you how to create a successful short film or video from script to final product. Plus, learn from real-world advice and examples from the filmmakers themselves. Book Jacket      The Developmental Psychology of Planning Sarah L. Friedman, Ellen Kofsky Scholnick, 2014-02-25 Planning is defined as formulating an organized method for action in advance. Although people do not plan all the time and planning does not occur in every situation, planning skill is central to all human behavior. There are developmental differences in planning skill and in the motivation to plan. Even among adults, variations in the engagement in the planning process are affected by individual attitudes, beliefs, and goals. Planning also has a different meaning at various junctures in one's life. Yet despite the amount of research on planning, many of the studies have focused only on the cognitive processes that enable mature individuals to plan. A continued exploration of the developmental course of planning, this text attempts to situate cognitive aspects of planning in the context of the social and cultural environment and other psychological processes Bringing together the contributions of developmental organizational and social psychologists it explains how when and why we plan Finally it addresses various issues that pertain to the different aspects of planning from formal problem solving to handling the demands of everyday life
