Hoping for the Best Sarah Berryman,2016-11-22 Fed up of how to books and people with perfect children who do wonderful things all of the time This is how it really is in our house It s hectic it s noisy and it s messy most of the time But by and large it s a happy house Parenting book Hoping for the Best Three months in the life of a twin plus one mummy offers a unique day to day glimpse into the challenges and craziness thrown at a mum to three young boys Sarah has real children They did not sleep through from day one They did not master baby led weaning They have all had the norovirus chicken pox and two of the three have had nits They have bitten and been bitten One has a hearing aid one wears splints at night to stop him walking on tip toes and one has a speech delay They play a little bicker a lot and are friends and enemies in equal measure Hoping for the Best gives a rare insight into daily life with identical twins and the dynamics between them their younger feistier sibling and the rest of the family The book will appeal to other parents and those who enjoy humorous writing and family life biographies Started as a diary the book was born when other school mums suggested that this would be just the kind of book that they would love to read not a parenting manual not a book about becoming a new mum but the true reality of life as a mum with identical twins plus one With Sarah s mantra Hoping for the best prepared for the worst and unsurprised by anything in between a quote from the American author Maya Angelou woven through the diary this account portrays an indelible impression of resilience and humour through the colourful challenges of each and every day
