to Be Saved? Marcus Grodi, 2012-07 A growing majority of Christians today believes that all that is necessary for salvation is an individual's faith in Jesus. Mega churches everywhere proclaim this Jesus and Me theology built around a simple application of John 3:16 downplaying the need for membership in any religious community, the practice of any rituals, the reception of any sacraments, the submission to any leaders, or the adherence to any set of doctrines. Salvation is merely by faith alone in Jesus alone by grace alone. But is this biblically, theologically, and historically sound?

What Must I Do to Be Saved? James Anderson, 2014-11-12 This book is a compilation with commentary of all New Testament Bible verses which tell us how to gain eternal life in heaven. The author, an attorney, conducted this search by purposefully ignoring denominational creeds and traditions, letting the Bible speak for itself. The book was written for those who are genuinely seeking God and His pathway to heaven, as well as Christians who desire to strengthen their assurance of eternal life in heaven.
