Turkey Recent Economic and Political Developments Yearbook Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP, Inc.,2015-01-14 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Turkey Recent Economic and Political Developments Yearbook When Turkey was Turkey Mary A. Poynter,1921 The Politics of Education in Turkey Zühere Emanet,2023-06-15 Control over education has been a keenly contested area since the Justice and Development Party AKP came to power in Turkey Central to this contest has been the question of whose values would be passed down to future generations with the inculcation of gender segregation in primary schools a key marker in ongoing cultural battles over Turkey's secularist founding principles and the growing dominance of Islamist political movements. This book offers an in depth analysis of gender inequality in action in the Turkish schooling system by examining changes in education provision and culture in the years since 2012. Based on two school ethnographies conducted in an AKP dominated district of Istanbul where the author worked as a teacher and researcher it examines neoliberal education policies and their co option by the AKP and other Islamist movements to promote their own agendas while also considering the effects of the struggle between rival Islamist groups. Grounding its theoretical approach with empirical evidence of ideology in action it provides an important analysis of the way in which boys and girls are socialized in Turkey's public schooling system.

Urban Poverty in Turkey Burcu Sentürk, 2016-09-23 Gecekondu settlements or shanty towns in large Turkish cities are mostly populated by low income families many of which have migrated from the villages of Central Anatolia. The rise of the Islamist party AKP in the 1990s and 2000s had a large impact on how these gecekondus are examined and how they are perceived to reflect key issues at play in Turkish society welfare local identity religious communities and the rise of civil society. Having lived in one of these neighbourhoods in Ankara Burcu entürk's book sheds light on the experience of gecekondu dwelling in Turkey. By focusing on this aspect she brings to the fore issues such as urbanisation modernisation and development as well as examining the impact these kinds of phenomena have on generation gaps and the role of women in Turkish society. By using the framework of the experience of three generations of gecekondu dwellers entürk is able to chart the emergence development and the gradual breakdown of social relations and how the dynamics of these have changed during the course of the latter half of the twentieth century.

The Kurdish Movement in Turkey Elsa Tulun Sen, 2025-08-21 This book examines the Kurdish movement in the context of total social movement theory. First tracing its origins as a conventionally nationalist movement Elsa Sen draws upon Alan Touraine's concept of a total social movement to argue that from 2000 to 2015 the Kurds in Turkey pursued a policy of engaging in a peace process channeling energy into civil society activism and electoral campaigns and promoting an inclusive understanding of national identity for all the components of Turkish society not just the Kurds in a hypothetically fully functioning democracy. Both theoretically informed and drawing upon empirical research in the form of interviews with Kurdish and Turkish activists non activists and political representatives the book provides a new perspective on contemporary Kurdish politics as oscillating between nationalist and social movement paradigms with the recent decline of the latter due to the resumption of military action by the Turkish state and the Kurdistan Workers Party after 2015.
