It Is the Same Light Daljit Singh Jawa, 2015-03-28 Sri Guru Granth Sahib is generally known as the holy scripture of Sikhism the world's fifth largest religion But this holy scripture is neither a storybook nor just the philosophy of the Sikh saints or prophets It is more like a collection of divine revelations and hymns expressing the feelings of love and devotion of the Sikh Gurus for the Supreme Being along with the similar yearnings and longings of the devotees and saints from all faiths prevalent in Indian subcontinent during those times The beauty of this 1430 page hymnal written in 22 different languages lies in the fact that while it spiritually connects the human mind to the original source of eternal bliss it provides a very practical and effective way to live in love and harmony with other fellow human beings irrespective of their faith color caste creed or race The following are a few examples of the views of eminent writers and scholars regarding Sri Guru Granth Sahib Mankind's religious future may be obscure yet one thing can be foreseen The living higher religions are going to influence each other more than ever before in the days of increasing communications between all parts of the world and branches of the human race In this coming religious debate the Sikh
