Where Do Doctors Hide Their Wings? Dennis G. McKenna, 2013-08 Where Do Doctors Hide Their Wings Is a collection of 27 short stories As incredulous as some may seem they are all true Some chapters will have you laughing while others might make you cry The book is a recap of the author s training as a PA and his first years in the field of medicine The author s mentors doctors with wings taught him to love their craft and to continually hunger for ever expanding depths of knowledge In his own words it was at their sides that I grew to love my patients as persons They taught me how to distinguish the person from the malady honoring the best in each of them so that they may in turn contribute to others This book is meant to start a conversation with patients saying to doctors show me your wings
