Spotify Near Me Returns:

Copyfight Phillipa McGuinness, 2015-05-01 Writers musicians filmmakers gamers lawyers and academics talk about why copyright matters to them or doesn't. We expect to be able to log on and read, watch or listen to anything anywhere anytime. Then copy it, share it, quote it, sample it, remix it. Does this leave writers, designers, filmmakers, musicians, photographers, artists and software and game developers with any rights at all? Have we forgotten how to pay for content? Are big corporations and copyright lawyers the only ones making money? Or are we looking in the wrong direction as illegal downloading becomes the biggest industry of all and copyright violation a way of life? In this provocative book, John Birmingham, Linda Jaivin, Marc Fennell, Clem Bastow, Lindy Morrison, Imogen Banks, Dan Hunter, Angela Bowne and others fire up the copyright debate like never before.

Proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development Xiaolong Li, Chunhui Yuan, John Kent, 2024-02-26 Economics has always been a heated research topic and green development is rising and integrating with various fields for interdisciplinary studies. Initiated in 2017, the International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development (ICEMGD) is an annual conference aiming at bringing together researchers from the fields of economics, business management, public administration, and green development for the sharing of research methods and theoretical breakthroughs. The 7th International Conference on Economic Management and Green Development (ICEMGD 2023) was held on August 6, 2023. It was a hybrid conference including several on-site workshops and an online session. The workshops were held in London, Gala, Birmingham, Sydney, and Beijing. The proceedings consist of papers accepted by ICEMDG 2023, which are carefully selected and reviewed by professional reviewers from corresponding research fields and the editing committee of the conference. The papers have a diverse range of topics situated at the intersecting fields of economic management, public administration, and green development. ICEMDG is working to provide a platform for international participants from fields like macro and microeconomics, international economics, finance, agricultural economics, health economics, business management, and marketing strategies, regional development studies, social governance, and sustainable development. This proceedings volume, together with the conference, looks forward to sparking inspiration and promoting collaborations. This book will be of interest to researchers, academics, professionals, and policymakers in the fields of economic management, public administration, and development studies.

Music,

Management, Marketing, and Law Phil Graham, 2019-03-25 This collection of interviews captures a period of historic change for the global music business along with a wealth of professional knowledge that extends from the late 1960s through to late 2012 when the interviews were conducted. They record the experiences and insights of people who helped to shape a global business that is quickly passing into history and transforming into something entirely new often because of decisions the interviewees have been directly involved in making. The material includes the aesthetic, artistic, technical, commercial, legal, and strategic aspects of the music industry. What is said is timeless in its historical significance for the music business and in its relevance for researchers engaged in studies on the dynamics of change in the global commercial music landscape

Antigravity Marius Alexander Forselius, 2017-12-15 Alpha version work in progress see notice at the end of the text
Marius Alexander Forselius was born in Romania 1991 only a few years after the Romanian communist regime was overthrown in December 1989. He was adopted to Sweden in 1994 and got diagnosed with autism at five years of age. In this book he explains the in and out of his life with his disorder and describes how his life has been until now with success and failures and strategies to success. One thing he explains is how he through meditation and physical exercise could defy the gravity and get in contact with his feminine spirit when he swims or meditates and how the different twists in his life have given him new insights and strength. For example he explains about his water visualization meditation which helped him to find his inner soul after a fungal infection forced him to stop swimming and how his virtual bathing as he explains helped him to recover mentally from the fungal crisis and at the same time feel more confident in himself. With the computer as analogy he explains how his brain works like a computer system which iterates the whole tree structure without filter to the context and then being overloaded and freezes. And he also explains about his creative career in music and software engineer studies and how his music interest was the key to resolve the fungal crisis. Note: This is a translation in ALPHA of my Swedish book Jag Upphöver Gravitationen that were a mixture of human and machine translation in order to be able to get an international version as soon as possible. Spelling and grammar errors might be present. I will provide a more accurate translation at a later time. This book contains a subset of the chapters from the original Swedish edition Girl in Between Anna

Daniels, 2017-04-26 Lucy Crighton has just moved in with some gregarious housemates called Brian and Denise who are her parents. She is also the proud mother of Glenda her beloved 10 year old kelpie. And she has absolutely no interest in the dashing son of her parents new next door neighbour well maybe just a little. As the girl in between relationships, careers and cities Lucy is facing some awkward truths like her mum's obsession with Cher her father's unsolicited advice and the probability there's more cash on the floor of her parents car than in her own bank account. Thank goodness for Lucy's crazy but wonderful best friend Rosie who is around to cushion reality with wild nights at the local Whiplash Hotel, escapades in Japanese mud baths and double dating under the Christmas lights in London. But will Lucy work out what she really wants to do in life and who she wants to share it with? Girl in Between is a warm, funny, charmingly Australian story about life at the crossroads. Featuring an endearing and irrepressible cast of characters it will have you chuckling from start to finish.

Y2K is a delightfully nostalgic and bitingly told exploration about how the early 2000s forever changed us and the world we live in.
