Becoming a Nation of Readers Marilyn R. Binkley, 1988 What Every Principal Needs to Know to Create Equitable and Excellent Schools George Theoharis, Jeffrey S. Brooks, 2012-08-17 School leaders who succeed at creating a high achieving learning community must also be committed to creating an equitable environment for all students. In this new book key scholars across the content areas show how to put into practice a commitment to equity and excellence across the Pre K-12 spectrum. Readers learn directly from experts in each of the content domains literacy, mathematics, science, social studies, music, early childhood, special education, English language learners, world languages, and physical education. How a commitment to social justice and equity can be grounded in core subject areas, why each has a place in the school, and what they need to know and do in each subject area. This book is a critical instructional leadership resource for new and veteran principals who want to see all students succeed Contributors Antonio J Castro Julie Causton Theoharis Virginia Collier Katherine Delaney Catherine Ennis Virginia Goatley Beth Graue Rochelle Gutierrez Kathleen A Hinchman Anne Karabon Christi Kasa Dave McAlpine Mitchell Robinson Victor Sampson Sherry A Southerland and Wayne Thomas Leadership and Literacy Neil Dempster, Tony Townsend, Greer Johnson, Anne Bayetto, Susan Lovett, Elizabeth Stevens, 2017-04-01 This book focuses on what school leaders need to know and understand about leadership for learning and for learning to read in particular. It brings together theory research and practice on leadership for literacy. The book reports on the findings from six studies that followed school principals from their involvement in a professional learning program consisting of five modules on leadership and the teaching of reading to implementation action in their schools. It describes how they applied a range of strategies to create leadership partnerships with their teachers pursuing eight related dimensions from a Leadership for Learning framework or blueprint. The early chapters of the book feature the use of practical tools as a focus for leadership activity. These chapters consider for example how principals and teachers can develop deeper understandings of their schools contexts, how professional discussions can be conducted with a process called disciplined dialogue and how principals might encourage approaches to shared leadership with their teachers. The overall findings presented in this book emphasise five positive positions on leadership for learning to read the importance of an agreed moral purpose sharing leadership for improvement understanding what learning to read involves implementing and evaluating reading interventions and recognising the need for support for leaders learning on the job A Principal's Guide to Literacy Instruction Carol S. Beers, James W. Beers, Jeffrey O. Smith, 2009-11-20 This succinct engaging book explains how busy elementary school principals can support effective literacy instruction in their schools. Chapters outline the fundamental components of a successful literacy program and describe specific practices that can instill a culture of literacy in a school. Strategies are provided for initiating a professional development program understanding and using appropriate assessments with students involving parents in literacy education and assessing the strengths and weaknesses of teachers instructional methods. Drawing from the authors extensive experience as principals and teachers the book's numerous examples demonstrate what strong literacy leadership looks like in action.
