Biological Invasions and Global Insect Decline Jonatan Rodríguez, Petr Pysek, Ana Novoa, 2023-09-13 Biological Invasions and Global Insect Decline offers the most updated knowledge on how invasive alien species affect insect diversity worldwide. The book provides ongoing research and the most relevant information covering the main aspects of the impact of biological invasions as well as future insights on mitigation and consequences. It discusses how the introduction of all kinds of organisms from bacteria and plants to vertebrates affect current declines in insect diversity. The latter portion of the book delves into existent and future monitoring and management programs including citizen science and regenerative ecology as socio ecological solutions to combat these threats. Written and edited by international experts on invasion ecology and insect conservation this book explores the role of global change and the introduction of invasive species in altering the structure of habitats and how this induces a global insect decline. This will be a valuable resource for entomologists, invasion biologists and other researchers in biodiversity conservation as well as practitioners and stakeholders concerned about problematic invasive alien species and insect population decline. Offers a concise vision of one of the main causes of insect extinctions in the Anthropocene. Discusses community ecology, insect conservation, species interactions, restoration ecology. Led by a team of editors whose expertise includes invasive alien species, invasion ecology, insect species diversity and species conservation.

Animal Rights Barbara James, 1999 Discusses the animal rights movement including the difference between animal rights and animal welfare using animals for experiments, animals as entertainment, keeping pets and hunting.

Cultural Heritage in a Globalized World Mahua Chakrabarti, Gagari Chakrabarti, 2025-07-25 This collection of essays covers a range of issues related to the intangible cultural heritage prevalent in South and Southeast Asia. The book thus furnishes a comprehensive account of the oral traditions, beliefs, cultural practices, language, and literature, folklore, songs, foods, healing traditions, holidays, etc. of India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Cambodia, Myanmar, Thailand, Vietnam, Indonesia, Malaysia, and Sri Lanka, along with their diversity and issues. As there are different types of issues and challenges regarding the conservation of intangible cultural heritage, this volume is divided into four different sections. They are Oral traditions and expressions, Performing arts, Rituals, sports, and festivals, Traditional cuisine, Knowledge and practices concerning life, nature, and the universe. The volume discusses a 360 degree view of issues and challenges to the intangible cultural heritage of South and Southeast Asia. Studies using extensive field studies in countries of South and Southeast Asia and covering a breadth of issues showcase a distinctively senior cohort of researchers whose contributions will be influential for tomorrow's research practices. The aspects analyzed are both traditional e.g. traditional food preservation and emerging e.g. changing lifestyles of ethnic groups. This edited volume offers immense potential by bringing together senior and young scholars who revisit a perennial question with a sharper focus to unravel essential insights that will surely inform tomorrow's knowledge and policymaking.

Animal Welfare Sir Colin Spedding, 2014-02-04 Awareness of the use of animals in human society in fields such as farming biotechnology and sport is dogged by the lack of a clear and objective exposition of the issues involved and a sense of possible conflict between human and animal welfare This text addresses these dilemmas what is the actual scale of the animal welfare problem where does responsibility begin what positive steps are actually being taken to alleviate animal suffering and can a rational and compelling argument be given for the importance of animal welfare It therefore aims to offer a comprehensive guide to the uninformed as well as those who have knowledge of the issues but lack conviction
