A European Television Fiction Renaissance Luca Barra, Massimo Scaglioni, 2020-11-29 This book maps the landscape of contemporary European premium television fiction offering a detailed overview of both the changes in the digital production and distribution and the emergence of specific national and transnational case histories. Combining a media production approach with a textual and audience analysis the volume offers a complex stratified systemic view of ongoing aesthetic, sociocultural and industrial developments in contemporary European TV. With contributions from leading experts in the field the book first offers an overview of the industrial policy and cultural context for the renaissance of European television drama over the past decade based on original comparative research. This research is then supported by case study chapters from the key contexts within which quality European television is being produced offering a complex and complete picture of the industry's strengths and limitations, its traditions and trends, its constraints and future perspectives. A European Television Fiction Renaissance is a must read book for TV scholars working across Europe and beyond in the areas of media studies, international communications and television studies, media industries studies, production studies, European studies and media policy studies as well as for those with an interest in television drama, Netflix globalisation, pay TV and on demand.

TV Outside the Box Neil Landau, 2015-12-22 TV Outside the Box: Trailblazing in the Digital Television Revolution explores the new and exploding universe of on demand, OTT, Over the Top networks, Netflix, Amazon, Hulu, Crackle, CW, Seed, Vimeo, AwesomenessTV and many more. Featuring in depth conversations with game changing content creators, industry mavericks and leading cultural influencers. TV Outside the Box is essential reading for anyone interested in the dynamics of a global media revolution while it's happening. Readers will discover how the new disruptors of traditional television models are shaping the future of the television and feature film business. You'll hear directly from the visionaries behind it all from concept genesis to predictions for the future of streaming platforms, their strategies for acquisitions and development of new original content and how the revolution is providing unprecedented opportunities for both established and emerging talent. What's different about storytelling for the progressive risk taking networks who are delivering provocative, groundbreaking, binge worthy content without the restraints of the traditional advertiser supported programming model. Through interviews with the showrunners, content creators and producers of dozens of trailblazing series including Orange Is the New Black, House of Cards, Transparent and many more you'll learn how and why the best and the brightest TV content creators and filmmakers are defining the new digital entertainment age and how you can too. How They Get You Chris Kohler, 2025-11-11 In this sharp, funny and empowering guide, journalist Chris Kohler takes you through the rigged carnival of modern life where the games are broken, the prizes are fake and somehow you're paying 28 to park near the entrance. From loyalty schemes to late fees, gift cards to sneaky supermarkets, How They Get You pulls back the curtain on how the systems work and how to outsmart them. Written for anyone who has ever looked at their bank account and thought I swear I didn't

A Companion to Television Janet Wasko, Eileen R. Meehan, 2019-12-30. The latest edition of the acclaimed volume on television studies featuring new original essays from leading scholars in the field. Although the digital age has radically altered the media and communications landscape worldwide television continues to play a significant part of our lives. From its earliest beginnings through to the present day television and its influence has been the subject of extensive study, critique and analysis. A Companion to Television brings together contributions from prominent international scholars comprising a wide range of perspectives on the medium. Original essays define television in its current state, explore why it is still relevant, survey the ways in which television has been studied, discuss how television has changed and consider what television might look like in the future. Now in its second edition this compendium includes fresh chapters that cover technological changes affecting television, contemporary approaches to understanding television, audiences, new programming trends and developments and more. Addressing nine key areas of television studies such as industry, genres, programs and audiences, the Companion offers readers a balanced, well rounded, integrative approach to scholarship in the field. This volume provides overviews of extensive original research from leading scholars and theorists. Examines television's development and significance in various regions of the world. Includes national and regional outlines of television around the world. Features theoretical overviews of various critical approaches to television studies. Explores historical, economic, institutional, political and cultural issues studied by media scholars. Presenting diverse perspectives on topics ranging from television advertising to satirical representations of the industry. A Companion to Television Second Edition is an invaluable resource for those in undergraduate courses in television studies as well as in general media studies and communications.
