Asian Refugees in America Eleanor Herz Swent,2011-09-29 When Eleanor Swent began teaching English as a Second Language in 1967 at a school for adults in Oakland California she soon learned that many of the Asian immigrants in her classes had remarkable tales to tell of struggles in their homelands and their efforts to make new lives in America This oral history based on interviews Swent conducted with her students over thirty years documents the Asian immigrant experience as never before Here are the stories of desperate individuals who swam to escape from China to Macao and Hong Kong of Chinese daughters considered worthless by their families of political refugees from Vietnam of ethnic Chinese who fled by boat from Vietnam of refugees from the genocide in Cambodia As these remarkable new Americans learn different words and customs they also enlarge our national vision enriching our culture while assuring us that human dignity can rise above terrible circumstances
