The Bonhoeffer Reader:

The Bonhoeffer Reader Clifford J. Green, Michael DeJonge, 2013-11-01 For the first time in nearly 20 years the essential theological writings of Dietrich Bonhoeffer have been drawn together in a helpful and concise one volume format The Bonhoeffer Reader brings the best English translation to readers students and scholars and provides a ready made introduction to the thought of this essential thinker , Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P.

DeJonge, 2017-02-09 In Dietrich Bonhoeffer's writings Martin Luther is ubiquitous Too often however Bonhoeffer's Lutheranism has been set aside with much less argumentative work than is appropriate in light of his sustained engagement with Luther As a result Luther remains a largely untouched hermeneutic key in Bonhoeffer interpretation In Bonhoeffer's Reception of Luther Michael P DeJonge presents Bonhoeffer's Lutheran theology of justification focused on the interpersonal presence of Christ in word sacrament and church The bridge between this theology and Bonhoeffer's ethical political reflections is his two kingdoms thinking Arguing that the widespread failure to connect Bonhoeffer with the Lutheran two kingdoms tradition has presented a serious obstacle in interpretation DeJonge shows how this tradition informs Bonhoeffer's reflections on war and peace as well as his understanding of resistance to political authority In all of this DeJonge argues that an appreciation of Luther's ubiquity in Bonhoeffer's corpus sheds light on his thinking lends it coherence and makes sense of otherwise difficult interpretive problems What might otherwise appear as disparate even contradictory moments or themes in Bonhoeffer's theology can often be read in terms of a consistent commitment to a basic Lutheran theological framework deployed according to dramatically changing circumstances Bonhoeffer's Theological Formation Michael P.

DeJonge, 2012-02-24 Dietrich Bonhoeffer's dramatic biography a son of privilege who suffered imprisonment and execution after involving himself in a conspiracy to kill Hitler and overthrow the Third Reich has helped make him one of the most influential Christian figures of the twentieth century But before he was known as a martyr or a hero he was a student and teacher of theology This book examines the academic formation of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology arguing that the young Bonhoeffer reinterpreted for a modern intellectual context the Lutheran understanding of the person of Jesus Christ In the process Bonhoeffer not only distinguished himself from both Karl Barth and Karl Holl whose dialectical theology and Luther interpretation respectively were two of the most important post World War I theological movements but also established the basic character of his own person theology Barth convinces Bonhoeffer that theology must understand revelation as originating outside the human self in God's freedom But whereas Barth understands revelation as the act of an eternal divine subject Bonhoeffer treats revelation as the act and being of the historical person of Jesus Christ On the basis of this person concept of revelation Bonhoeffer rejects Barth's dialectical thought designed to respect the distinction between God and world for a hermeneutical way of thinking that begins with the reconciliation of God and world in the person of Christ Here Bonhoeffer mines a Lutheran understanding of the incarnation as God's unreserved entry into history and the person of Christ as the resulting historical reconciliation of opposites This also distinguishes Bonhoeffer's Lutheranism from that of Karl Holl one of Bonhoeffer's teachers in Berlin whose location of justification in the conscience renders the presence of Christ superfluous Against this Bonhoeffer emphasizes the present person of Christ as the precondition of justification Through these critical conversations Bonhoeffer develops the features of his person theology a person concept of revelation and a hermeneutical way of thinking which remain constant despite the sometimes radical changes in his thought

Bonhoeffer's New Beginning Andrew D. DeCort, 2018-09-15 Bonhoeffer's New Beginning investigates the ethics of making new beginnings after devastating moral rupture The work argues that new beginnings must be made in order to sustain the fundamental convictions that it is good to exist and that life in the world with others should be loved without exclusion Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning is set in conversation with the thought of four moral philosophers Friedrich Nietzsche Hannah Arendt Jonathan Glover and Jonathan Lear DeCort argues that Bonhoeffer's ethics of new beginning opens and energizes a more promising world affirming moral vision with radical hope for new beginnings vis vis the perceived absence of God in the face of devastation

Thirteen Turns Larry Donell Covin, 2020-06-01 It is remarkable that African Americans the descendants of slaves embrace Christianity at all The imagination that is necessary to parse biblical text and find within it a theology that speaks to their context is a testimony to their will to survive in a hostile land Black religion embraces the cross and the narrative of Jesus as savior both theologically and culturally But this does not suggest that African Americans have not historically and do not now struggle with the reconciliation of the cross black life suffering African Americans are well aware of the shared relationship of Christianity with the white oppressors of history The religion that helped African Americans to survive is the religion that was instrumental in their near genocide

Just War Thinkers Revisited Daniel R. Brunstetter, Cian O'Driscoll, 2024-11-25 This book comprises essays that focus on a range of thinkers who challenge the boundaries of the just war tradition The ethics of war scholarship has become a rigid and highly disciplined activity closely associated with a very particular canon of thinkers This volume moves beyond this by presenting thinkers not typically regarded as part of that canon but who have interesting and potentially important things to say about the ethics of war The book presents 20 profile essays on an eclectic cast of heretics humanists and radicals from ancient Greece to the twenty first century who lived through and theorized about violence The book asks how ethics of war scholars might benefit from engaging with them Some of these thinkers engage directly with to augment or criticize the just war tradition while others contribute to military thinking across the ages pushing the boundaries of what was acceptable in war Many proffer alternative moral frameworks regarding the legitimacy of political violence The present volume thus invites scholars to reconsider the ethics of war in a way that challenges the standard delineation between just war theory realism and pacifism and to reflect on how those positions might inform our own approach to these matters This book will be of much interest to students of just war theory ethics of war war studies and International Relations
