The New York Times Magazine, 1982 The Courage of Strangers Jeri Laber, 2005-02-16 After Jeri Laber earned a Master's degree in Russian studies at Columbia University she became a part time writer and editor and a full time wife and mother. Then one day in 1973 she read an article about torture that altered her life and subsequently the lives of countless others around the world. The Courage of Strangers tells how Laber became a founder and the executive director of Helsinki Watch which grew to be Human Rights Watch one of the world's most influential organizations. She describes her secret trips to unwelcoming countries where she met with some of the great political activists of the time. She also recalls what it was like to come of age professionally in an era when women were supposed to follow rather than lead, how she struggled to balance work and family and how her fight for human rights informed her own intellectual, spiritual and emotional development. This story of the birth of the human rights movement is also a sweeping history of dissent and triumph in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe. Elegantly written, full of passion, humor and political wisdom, it is an exciting history as well as a moving, entertaining, inspiring story of a woman's life.

The Polish Review, 1956 The New York Times Current History, 1939-03 A Global Strategy for the 1980's William I. Lowry, 1981 The World Economy and the Environment, 1994-03

EPA Journal, 1990 Congressional Record United States. Congress, The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress. It is published daily when Congress is in session. The Congressional Record began publication in 1873. Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789-1824, the Register of Debates in Congress 1824-1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833-1873. Our Lives and Times World Publications, Incorporated, 2003-09 Recorded history's most dynamic epoch comes to life as never before in book form. A veritable browser's paradise, Our Lives Times encompasses the 20th century and beyond, packing more than one hundred years of facts, images, essays and chronological timelines into one visually delightful, thoroughly readable, highly entertaining chronicle of the people and events that shaped our past and continue to shape our present.

New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1962-07 New York Times Current History, 1915 Universal Father Garry O'Connor, 2013-08-22 The first biography to tell the full and extraordinary story of one of the most influential figures of the twentieth century, setting the private individual in the public context. A fine, enduring biography, O'Connor's triumph is to make the search for the soul of a papacy an enjoyable, edifying and occasionally emotional journey. Glasgow Herald Pope John Paul II is now universally considered to have been one of the great leaders of the twentieth century and possibly the most politically influential pope since St Peter. His achievements are well documented, yet he once said, 'I can only be understood from the inside.' In this vivid and accessible living portrait, O'Connor investigates the inner man, including Karol Wojtyla's life before he became Pope and his friendships with men and women, subtly analysing the Pope's own poems, plays and philosophical works for clues as to what made him tick. It also dramatically follows his life from his birth in Poland in 1920 through the losses that shaped his childhood the assassination attempt in 1981 and his great public confrontations on the world stage right up until his death in April 2005 Poland China Swine World ,1920
