Breaking Ranks Colin Diver, 2022-04-12 Some colleges will do anything to improve their national ranking That can be bad for their students and for higher education Since U S News World Report first published a college ranking in 1983 the rankings industry has become a self appointed judge declaring winners and losers among America s colleges and universities In this revealing account Colin Diver shows how popular rankings have induced college applicants to focus solely on pedigree and prestige while tempting educators to sacrifice academic integrity for short term competitive advantage By forcing colleges into standardized best college hierarchies he argues rankings have threatened the institutional diversity intellectual rigor and social mobility that is the genius of American higher education As a former university administrator who refused to play the game Diver leads his readers on an engaging journey through the mysteries of college rankings admissions financial aid spending policies and academic practices He explains how most dominant college rankings perpetuate views of higher education as a purely consumer good susceptible to unidimensional measures of brand value and prestige Many rankings he asserts also undermine the moral authority of higher education by encouraging various forms of distorted behavior misrepresentation and outright cheating by ranked institutions The recent Varsity Blues admissions scandal for example happened in part because affluent parents wanted to get their children into elite schools by any means necessary Explaining what is most useful and important in evaluating colleges Diver offers both college applicants and educators a guide to pursuing their highest academic goals freed from the siren song of the best college illusion Ultimately he reveals how to break ranks with a rankings industry that misleads its consumers undermines academic values and perpetuates social inequality

The College Completion Glass—Half-Full or Half-Empty? Tiffany Beth Mfume, 2018-12-21 Despite the Great Recession and looming student loan debt crisis college education remains the most proven invaluable lifetime investment and serves as the most reliable path to upward mobility and socioeconomic class reassignment Mfume suggests that the value added of even one year of college can be transformative As higher education professionals and partners continue to advocate for new and improved college retention and graduation measures The College Completion Glass Half Full or Half Empty Exploring the Value of Postsecondary Education presents a new paradigm for higher education one that focuses on the value added of postsecondary education as well as on student success beyond the traditional measure of college graduation rates a model which merges conventional practices and supports for students with non traditional partnerships with and advocacy from successful non completers

Burden or Benefit: External Data Reporting Kristina Powers, Angela E. Henderson, 2016-01-20 Blazing new trails in the area of reporting and transparency Required and voluntary reporting of student data to external agencies has increased in volume quantity and complexity and understanding the scope of reporting requirements and the associated burden is critical to higher education practitioners This volume focuses on new directions in institutional reporting and the associated burden The convergence of increased reporting coupled with the
