Brian Brocklehurst,1963 Warfare in Chinese History H. J. Van Derven,2000-01-01 Based on original sources and dealing with the subject from the earliest dynasty up to modernity this book uniquely combines chapters on strategy and tactics Both scope and approach make it a must not only for historians of China but with a view to its conclusions on the place of China in the context of global military history also for historians of comparative warfare in general Boxer Uprising ,1981 The Chinese Medical Ministries of Kang Cheng and Shi Meiyu, 1872-1937 Connie A. Shemo,2011-09-22 This is the first full length study of the medical ministries of Kang Cheng and Shi Meiyu Know in English speaking countries as Drs Ida Kahn and Mary Stone these two Chinese women opened a small Western style medical practice for women and children inthe Jiujiang China in 1896 At its broadest level this study contributes to the development of a transnational women s history deepening our understanding about how ideas about women have traveled across boundaries At the Frontier of God's Empire Ji Li,2023 To a lively cast of international players that shaped Manchuria during the early twentieth century At the Frontier of God s Empire adds the remarkable story of Alfred Marie Caubri re 1876 1948 A French Catholic missionary Caubri re arrived in Manchuria on the eve of the Boxer Uprising in 1899 and was murdered on the eve of the birth of the People s Republic of China in 1948 Living with ordinary Chinese people for half a century Caubri re witnessed the collapse of the Qing empire the warlord s chaos that followed the rise and fall of Japanese Manchukuo and the emergence of communist China Caubri re s incredible personal archive on which Ji Li draws extensively opens a unique window into everyday interaction between Manchuria s grassroots society and international players His gripping accounts personalize the Catholic Church s expansion in East Asia and the interplay of missions and empire in local society Through Caubri re s experience At the Frontier of God s Empire examines Chinese people at social and cultural margins during this period A wealth of primary sources family letters and visual depictions of village scenes illuminate vital issues in modern Chinese history such as the transformation of local society mass migration and religion tensions between church and state and the importance of cross cultural exchanges in everyday life in Chinese Catholic communities This intense transformation of Manchurian society embodies the clash of both domestic and international tensions in the making of modern China The Boxers, China, and the World Robert Bickers, R. G. Tiedemann, 2007-07-12 In 1900 China chose to take on imperialism by fighting a war with the world on the parched north China plain This multidisciplinary volume explores the causes behind what is now known as the Boxer War examining its particular cruelties and its impact on China foreign imperialism in China and on the foreign imagination This war introduced the world to the Boxers the seemingly fanatical violent xenophobes who believing themselves invulnerable to foreign bullets died in their thousands in front of foreign guns But 1900 also saw the imperialism of the 1890s checked and the Qing rulers of China move to embark on a series of shattering reforms The Boxers have often been represented as a force from China's past resisting an enforced modernity Here expert contributors argue that this rebellion was instead a wholly modern resistance to globalizing power representing new trends in modern China and in international relations The allied invasion of north China in late summer 1900 was the first multinational intervention in the name of civilization with the issues and attendant problems that have become all too familiar in the early twenty first century Indeed understanding the Boxer rising and the Boxer war remains a pressing contemporary issue This volume will appeal to readers interested in modern Chinese East Asian and European history as well as the history of imperialism colonialism warfare missionary work and Christianity Contributions by C A Bayly Lewis Bernstein Robert Bickers Paul A Cohen Henrietta Harrison James L Hevia Ben Middleton T G Otte Roger R Thompson R G Tiedemann and Anand A Yang The Peking Gazette Lane J. Harris, 2018-05-07 In The Peking Gazette: A Reader in Nineteenth Century Chinese History Lane J Harris offers an innovative text covering the extraordinary ruptures and remarkable continuities in the history of China's long nineteenth century 1793-1912 by providing scholarly introductions to thematic chapters of translated primary sources from the government gazette of the Qing Empire The Peking Gazette is a unique collection of primary sources designed to help readers explore and understand the policies and attitudes of the Manchu emperors the ideas and perspectives of Han officials and the mentality and worldviews of several hundred million Han Mongol Manchu Muslim and Tibetan subjects of the Great Qing Empire as they discussed and debated the most important political social and cultural events of the long nineteenth century This volume is related to the primary source database compiled by the author entitled Translations of the Peking Gazette Online and produced by Brill 2017 For a video with explanation by the author visit Brill's YouTube channel Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger, 2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations Pacific Affairs ,1964 Includes book reviews and bibliographies A Sociological
