Dachshund Through the Snow David Rosenfelt, 2019-10-01 This Christmas lawyer Andy Carpenter and his golden retriever Tara can't say no to helping young Danny and his dachshund Murphy. Lawyer Andy Carpenter and his wife Laurie have started a new Christmas tradition. Their local pet store has a Christmas tree where instead of ornaments there are wishes from those in need. One poignant wish leads Andy to a child named Danny whose selfless plea strikes a chord. Danny asked Santa for a coat for his mother, a sweater for his dachshund Murphy, and for the safe return of his missing father. It turns out Danny's father doesn't want to be found; he's on the run after just being arrested for a murder that took place fourteen years ago, a murder that Danny's mother swears he didn't commit. With his trademark humor and larger-than-life characters including a police officer and his K-9 partner, Simon Rosenfelt never fails to deliver as Andy and his eccentric crew dash to reunite a family in time for Christmas.

Small Stages Aubrey Huber, Chris McRae, 2025-11-28 Small Stages Cabinets, Dioramas, and other Tiny Performances is a consideration of small stages as unique and generative sites for creating and presenting performance. The book examines the ways in which small stages are diminutive sites of performance that derive meaningfulness from the size of the performance area. Organized around four distinct types of small stages such as cabinets of curiosity, dioramas, little free book exchanges, and tiny desk performances, this book explores how meaning can be created in these unusual performance areas. Each chapter considers the embodied functions, performative and affective qualities, and pedagogical implications of these small stages. The final chapter of the book presents the practice of creating digital archives as a small stage and performance. The appendix offers two sample assignments for use or adaptation in a range of courses in performance, theatre education, humanities, and cultural studies. Ideal for students and scholars of performance studies and theatre, as well as researchers in wider associated fields such as media studies, communication studies, and visual arts.
