Learners Patricia L. McAnally,Susan Rose,Stephen Patrick Quigley,2007 This book was written specifically for professors and college students in teacher training programs for deaf education and for classroom teachers working with deaf and hard of hearing learners It is one of the very few books on the market that focuses entirely on the hearing impaired It consists of three sections each one providing in depth information on topics critical to the teaching of reading to this specific population Section one Foundations contains chapters dealing with theory and research in such topics as cognition reading language literary development vocabulary and comprehension One chapter on ASL English and Reading looks at the research in the area of second language learners and discusses its application to deaf and hard of hearing students Section two Instructional Management deals with instructional management and describes instructional systems and designs These chapters look at current trends in education and how these trends apply to the education of students who are deaf and hard of hearing Section three Applications focuses on specific instructional models in reading writing and spelling detailing strategies that have been successfully used with deaf and hard of hearing learners The last chapter in this section discusses assessment giving information and examples of both formal and authentic procedures Assessing and Guiding Classroom Reading

Instruction Martha Collins, Earl H. Cheek, 1999-06 This text provides classroom teachers with information on developing a systematic procedure for assessing reading skill performance and offers prescriptive instruction. The first chapter addresses reading as a language process and establishes the basic conceptual framework. The remainder of the text is organized around five steps that should be followed to provide effective reading instruction. New to this edition: The latest research on teacher instruction for technologically advanced students. More emphasis on student assessment versus clinical diagnoses. The importance of assessing and guiding reading through language literacy development is stressed. Reading Essentials Regie Routman, 2003 In this easy to read and research based text Regie Routman provides clarity, support, specific demonstrations and confidence to teachers so they can teach reading well and get high test scores too regardless of the reading program they use. Detailed lessons, immediately doable ideas, teaching tips and lots of practical suggestions make this an essential text for excellent and enjoyable teaching and learning. Keys to Effective Learning Carol Carter, Joyce Bishop, Sarah Lyman Kravits, 2002 For Study Skills, Student Success and Freshman Seminar courses. This book focuses on developing effective learning techniques to help students excel in school in their careers and throughout their lives as lifelong learners. Unlike traditional study skills texts, this one emphasizes how students learn effectively by involving them in the active process of mastering their mental abilities and their personal confidence.
