Focus On: 100 Most Popular Australian Films Wikipedia contributors, Box Office, 1962 Watching TV Harry Castleman, Walter J. Podrazik, 2024-12-16 Castleman and Podrazik present a season by season narrative that encompasses the eras of American television from the beginning in broadcast through cable and now streaming. They deftly navigate the dizzying array of contemporary choices so that no matter where you start on the media timeline Watching TV provides the context and background to this multi billion dollar enterprise. Drawing on decades of research the authors weave together personalities popular shows corporate strategies historical events and changing technologies enhancing the main commentary with additional elements that include fall prime time schedule grids for every season date box timelines highlighted key text and selected photos. Full of facts firsts insights and exploits from now back to the earliest days Watching TV is the standard chronology of American television and reading it is akin to channel surfing through history. The fourth edition updates the story into the 2020s and looks ahead to the next waves of change. This new edition is the first to also be available in a digital format.

Investing in Movies Joseph N. Cohen, 2021-12-30 In this second edition of Investing in Movies industry veteran Joseph N. Cohen provides investors and producers with an analytical framework to assess the opportunities and pitfalls of film investments. The book traces macroeconomic trends and the globalization of the business including the rise of streamers as well as the impact these have on potential returns. It offers a broad range of guidelines on how to source interesting projects and advice on what kinds of projects to avoid as well as numerous ways to maximize risk adjusted returns. While focusing primarily on investments in independent films Cohen also provides valuable insights into the studio and independent slate deals that have been marketed to the institutional investment community. As well this new edition has been updated to fully optimize the current film industry climate including brand new chapters on the Chinese film market new media streaming services and the effects of COVID 19 on the global film market. Written in a detailed and approachable manner this book is essential for students and aspiring professionals looking to gain an insider perspective against the minefield of film investing.

Media Libraries in an Age of Unending Consumption Mike Van Esler, 2023-10-24 As the home video market upended traditional film industry models media libraries emerged as important sources of ancillary revenue. The inflection point for media library exploitation came in 2007 when Netflix launched its streaming service relying on extensive licensing of film and television libraries to grow its subscriber base. In this book Mike Van Esler examines how media libraries and business models have evolved since the home video era with particular emphasis placed on the streaming age of the past fifteen years. Van Esler argues that media libraries have grown beyond their usages from the pre home video era to become central to today's corporate media strategy. By studying the ways in which media library exploitation has scaled up since the turn of the new millennium the author identifies insights into larger media industry trends. Ultimately this book explores the intersection of corporate media independent distributors private equity tech companies and audiences.
