The Discounts and Deals at the Nation's 360 Best Colleges Bruce G. Hammond,1999-08-20 From Parent Soup the leading Internet parenting site comes the only book that reveals how the financial aid process really works today and how savvy families can pay less at the nation's best colleges Bruce Hammond shows how discounts and deals can reduce the sticker price at top colleges nationwide even for families who would not have qualified for need-based aid in the past Since the Justice Department broke up financial aid collaboration among the elite colleges in 1991 and because of escalating competitive pressures colleges now use financial aid to compete for students rather than merely to cover need The relatively uniform system of aid that existed years ago is gone replaced by one in which

aid varies depending on the school's resources and its place in the market. Combining financial aid information with a detailed guide to the nation's 360 best colleges, the book reveals which colleges offer the best need-based aid, which colleges give the biggest merit scholarships, how to qualify for scholarships and discounts, when and how to negotiate for a better aid package. Discounts and Deals at the Nation's 360 Best Colleges cuts through the confusing world of financial aid with no nonsense advice and insider lists and rankings. It is an indispensable resource for parents and students as they enter one of the most important times in their lives. 8 Steps to Help Black Families Pay for College Thomas Alexis LaVeist, Will LaVeist, 2003. How are you going to pay for college? With the costs of college these days, financial aid isn't an option; it's a necessity. But how do you know you're getting everything you deserve? Eight Steps to Help Black Families Pay for College walks you through this daunting process. Inside you'll learn how to get a handle on the financial aid process, learn about loans, scholarships, grants, and work study programs. Approach financial aid with the right attitude and make debt work for you. Choose the right school and understand how cost factors into college selection. Utilize long and short-term strategies to get the maximum aid you need. Assess and respond to financial aid offers. Pay back loans responsibly. You'll also gain insight into how the government and colleges determine your expected family contribution (EFC). As a bonus, you'll discover the role affirmative action plays in the admissions decision. We've even included real-life stories to help you avoid financial aid gaffes and pitfalls. Learn how to make informed action pay off now and in the long run so that one day you can give back to your alma mater and your community. The Discounts and Deals at the Nation's 360 Best Colleges Bruce G.
