Toronto Burning Three Making Unmaking:

Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford, 2017-07-18 Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere

Counterblasting Canada Paul Hjartarson, Gregory Betts, Kristine Smitka, 2016-03-18 Situating the intellectual inheritance of Canadian Vorticists in a multidisciplinary assemblage of authors and artists

Is Toronto Burning? Philip Monk, 2016 Is Toronto Burning looks at both the beautiful and ugly sides of the underground art scene in Toronto during the late 1970s brimming with rebellious art from an often overlooked period

Structure and Agency in the Neoliberal University Joyce E. Canaan, Wesley Shumar, 2008-05 This volume brings together a set of largely ethnographic articles written from a critical perspective that consider how current transitions in post secondary education are impacting on higher education HE institutions

The formation of Croatian national identity Alex Bellamy, 2013-07-19 This book assesses the formation of Croatian national identity in the 1990s It develops a novel framework calling into question both primordial and modernist approaches to nationalism and national identity before applying that framework to Croatia In doing so the book provides a new way of thinking about how national identity is formed and why it is so important An explanation is given of how Croatian national identity was formed in the abstract via a historical narrative that traces centuries of yearning for a national state The book shows how the government opposition parties dissident intellectuals and diaspora groups offered alternative accounts of this narrative in order to legitimise contemporary political programmes based on different versions of national identity It then looks at how these debates were manifested in social activities as diverse as football religion economics and language This book attempts to make an important contribution to both the way we study nationalism and national identity and our understanding of post Yugoslav politics and society An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence

Individually Ourselves Sarah Winkler-Reid, 2023-11-10 Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in a London high school Individually Ourselves demonstrates how young people elaborate notions of individual personhood through their friendships and pervasive peer ethics shaped in and through relations of power and inequality By examining the interplay between ourselves and others during such a formative time of life the book addresses how individuality is produced in everyday life and how our interactions help create the person we become      Prostitution, Race, and Politics Philippa Levine, 2003 Publisher description      Homelessness Jack Layton, 2000 Barely two decades ago the world's experts in housing policy were giving Canada high marks for its progressive housing policies Until recently our own common understanding of homelessness had been limited to occasional wanderers eccentrics boozers or addicts Yet as a new century dawns homelessness as we recognize it has changed and grown offering painful reminders of the soup kitchen lineups of the depression era Homelessness is a rapidly growing social problem Measured in terms of displaced persons the dimensions of the crisis rival those found during natural disasters such as the Quebec and Manitoba floods or the great ice storm of '98 Today's homelessness in Canadian communities represents a relatively new phenomenon difficult to comprehend in this land and time of plenty How did this happen How did we get here What can be done to solve it Jack Layton one of this country's leading experts and outspoken activists on housing issues addresses the crisis from its roots in order not only to understand the problem but to find workable solutions With a stunning combination of rigorous research and compelling personal anecdote and trenchant and timely analysis from such wide ranging sources as social scientists housing economists mayors journalists clergy and the homeless themselves Homelessness offers insight perspective and proactive solutions to a seemingly intractable crisis      Reflections on Canada's Past, Present and Future in International Law/Réflexions sur le passé, le présent et l'avenir du Canada en droit international Oonagh E. Fitzgerald, Valerie Hughes, Mark Jewett, 2018-06-30 Marking 150 years since Confederation provides an opportunity for Canadian international law practitioners and scholars to reflect on Canada's rich history in international law and governance where we find ourselves today in the community of nations and how we might help shape a future in which Canada's rules based and progressive approach to international law gains ascendancy This collection of essays each written in the official language chosen by the authors provides a thoughtful perspective on Canada's past and present in international law surveys the challenges that lie before us and offers renewed focus for Canada's pursuit of global justice and the rule of law Part I explores the history and practice of international law including sources of international law Indigenous treaties international treaty diplomacy domestic reception of international law and Parliament's role in international law Part II explores Canada's role in international law governance and innovation in the broad fields of economic environmental and intellectual property law Part III explores Canadian perspectives on developments in international human rights and humanitarian law including judicial implementation of these obligations international labour law business and human rights international criminal law war crimes child soldiers and gender Reflections on Canada's Past Present and Future in International Law Réflexions sur le passé le présent et l'avenir du Canada en droit international demonstrates the pivotal role that Canada has played in the development of international law and signals the essential contributions the country is poised to make in the future
