The Twilight Hour Celtic Visions From The Past:

The Twilight Hour Simon Marsden,2003 The fascination of terror is an ancient one as ancient as the human race therein lies its power stronger than our intellect stronger even than our fears going down to the very primitive core of our being It was our distant ancestors the Celts who believed that the period between day and night The Twilight Hour was a dangerous time when one's earthly spirit or soul might cross over into another dimension a supernatural world that so fired the imaginations of this proud and mysterious race In this book we find the creations of such poetic imaginations stories poems and extracts from the acknowledged literary geniuses in the genre from Europe and the USA all of whom are of Celtic ancestry Featuring work by Bram Stoker Robert Louis Stevenson Wilkie Collins Mary Shelley Guy de Maupassant Charles Baudelaire Edgar Allan Poe and many others as well as stunning new photography shot on location in England Ireland Scotland France and the USA
