Thorstein Veblen And The American Way Of Life:

Thorstein Veblen and the American Way of Life Louis Patsouras, 2004 The best critic of America that America has produced Veblen And Modern America Michael Spindler, 2002-05-20 Evaluates Veblen not just as an economist or a sociologist but as a seminal critic of modern American culture The Triumph of Ignorance and Bliss James Polk, 2008 A brilliant analysis which shows that North Americans have largely abandoned the public sphere for the sake of individual fortune In The Triumph of Ignorance and Bliss Polk examines the foundations of a culture that he sees as favouring firepower over diplomacy passions from the pulpit over rational critique and the star appeal of media idols over a debate about the real problems Where engaged public discourse should channel effective dissent there is ignorance where public outrage should ignite corrective action to oppose the blatant wrongs there is bliss Polk portrays a society sidetracked by television inspired fantasies of fame fun and perfect bodies where public school systems are close to collapse where millions live without health insurance where tax policies openly favour the wealthiest where corporations brazenly take control not only of decision making processes but also of the very means by which issues content and public priorities are defined where the optimism of the past has been replaced by a sense of despair and foreboding because of abuses of trust James Polk's portrait of America is riveting his arguments are sound and convincing An important fascinating book written with a strong message Norm Goldman Bookpleasures.com Table of Contents Preface Chapter 1 Nowhere In Suburbia Chapter 2 Starbucks And The Public Sphere Chapter 3 Onward Christian Taliban Chapter 4 America Means Business Chapter 5 God's Own People Chapter 6 The Evil Of Banality Chapter 7 The Fading American Empire Index James Polk holds a PhD in philosophy for his work on Kant and Heidegger Other publications include essays and translations in social philosophy and comparative social history He teaches at the University of Southern California 2008 256 pages 6x9 bibliography and index The Engineering-Business Nexus Steen Hyldgaard Christensen, Bernard Delahousse, Christelle Didier, Martin Meganck, Mike Murphy, 2018-11-14 Fascinating and compelling in equal measure this volume presents a critical examination of the multilayered relationships between engineering and business In so doing the study also stimulates ethical reflection on how these relationships either enhance or inhibit strategies to address vital issues of our time In the context of geopolitical economic and environmental tendencies the authors explore the world that we should want to create and the role of the engineer and the business manager in this endeavor Throughout this volume the authors identify periods of alignment and periods of tension between engineering and business They look at focal points of the engineering business nexus related to the development of capitalism The book explores past and present movements to reshape reform or reject this nexus The volume is informed by questions of importance for industry as well as for higher education These are What kinds of conflict arise for engineers in their attempts to straddle both professional and organizational commitments How should professionals be managed to avoid a clash of managerial and professional cultures How do engineers create value in firms and corporations What kinds of tension exist between higher education and industry What challenges does the neoliberal entrepreneurial university pose for management faculty students society and industry Should engineering graduates be ready for work and can they possibly be What kinds of business issues are reflected in engineering education curricula and for what purpose Is there a limit to the degree of business hybridization in engineering degree programs and if so what would be the criterion for its definition Is there a place in engineering education curricula for reflective critique of assumptions related to business and economic thinking One ideal of management and control comes to the fore as the Anthropocene the world transformed into an engineered artefact which includes human existence The volume raises the question as to how engineering and business together should be considered given the fact that the current engineering business nexus remains embedded within an economic model of continual growth By addressing macro level issues such as energy policy sustainable development globalization and social justice this study will both help create awareness and stimulate development of self knowledge among practitioners educators and students thereby ultimately addressing the need for better informed citizens to safeguard planet Earth as a human life supporting system

Transforming Higher Education Stephen J. Rosow, Thomas Kriger, 2012-07-10 The university is being transformed and can be transformed This doubleness informs this book Transforming in transforming higher education can be read as adjective suggesting that higher education is being transformed by the social and political situation in which it is enmeshed Transforming can also be read as a gerund implying the critical activity of changing the university as signaling a creative and political act of radical possibility The essays in this book address the transformation of higher education and the transformative possibilities of its current conditions Only by viewing the university as a historical construction can we assess the dangers and opportunities of the new conditions of higher education and chart a reasonable course for the future The essays in this book are critical of recent developments in universities and higher education Most of us come from public universities and all remain committed to a democratic higher education that we see threatened by recent developments There is a danger that the combination of economic crisis market ideology and global pressures will continue to structure the debate about higher education in ways that freeze out the transformative and politically critical possibilities of the university Part I of the book examines the historical transformation of the university as it has changed into its current form Part II examines both the transformation of the university into a neoliberal institution and makes the case for the more political and radical idea of transforming the university in opposition to how it has been transformed in recent years Part III offers a number of studies aimed at illuminating possibilities for transforming the university in a more progressive democratic direction

Thorstein Veblen and the Enrichment of Evolutionary Naturalism Rick Tilman, 2007 Tilman argues that evolutionary naturalism provides the philosophical foundations of Veblen's thought He links evolutionary naturalism to Veblen's aesthetics secular humanism sociology of control sociobiology and sociology of knowledge thereby initiating observations regarding the relationship of Veblen's own life to his thinking and his place as a cultural lag theorist Provided chapter represents the author's scholarly approach to a particular problem in American cultural history yet the essays as a whole achieve unity through their chronological order and common themes Although not a complete history of American culture this book is noteworthy for the important trends in American culture that it discusses The editors Coben and Ratner explain this significance in their introduction to the essays Our authors have not attempted to provide a comprehensive survey of the national culture or cultures in the period They have tried rather to explore periods during which important aspects of American culture became significant or at least obvious concentrating usually on the groups most involved in these changes Beginning with a discussion of the European outposts of the mid seventeenth century the essayists go on to examine popular symbols connected with the American revolution the reforms instituted during the early 19th century the political speeches and essays of 1820 1850 the Southern subcultures of the mid nineteenth century the progressive spirit of the early twentieth century the intellectual crisis of the 1920 s the cultural mood of acquiescence in the 1930 s and finally the state of culture in contemporary America Publisher The Gilded Age and After John August DeNovo, John A.
