

Three Level Comprehension Guide for Active Reading

What it is: Leveled reading is a way to comprehend, interpret and apply difficult texts by working at the literal, interpretive and applied levels.

What it does: Leveled reading helps readers to go beyond the surface of a text in a step-by-step way.

Level 1 (literal – reading what is right there)

Here the reader finds the answer in the text. The reader might be asked to do any of the following:

- Identify the main ideas of the paragraph or short story.
- Recall details that support the main ideas.
- Organize the sequence in which the main events occurred.

Examples of literal question starters: What happened . . . ? How many . . . ? How did . . . ? Who . . . ? What is . . . ? Which . . . ?

Level 2 (interpretive – reading between the lines)

Here, the reader interprets the information to find answers. The reader might be asked to do any of the following:

- Predict endings and anticipate consequences.
- State reasons for events.
- Make generalizations.

Examples of interpretive question starters: Why did . . . ? What was . . . ? What do you think about . . . ? Can you explain . . . ? How was this similar to . . . ?

Level 3 (applied – reading beyond the lines)

Here the reader makes links between the text and his or her own experience and knowledge to develop an answer. The reader asks open-ended questions to promote deeper understanding and do the following:

- Make generalizations.
- Make comparisons.
- Make judgments.
- Make recommendations and suggestions.
- Make decisions.
- Create alternative endings.

Examples of applied question starters: How would you . . . ? Do you agree . . . ? What would have happened if . . . ? How might . . . ? What effect does . . . ? If you were . . . what would you . . . ?

Secondary School Reading, Process, Program, Procedure

Walter Hill,1979 Secondary School Reading presents carefully thought out practical strategies for promoting the development of reading skills at the post elementary level Practical applications are presented through their relationship to the theoretical conception of the total reading learning process as they relate to the learner s needs Reading instruction in the secondary school is essentially different than elementary instruction in the school The older young people have different needs and interests and utilize different cognitive strategies This volume presents strategies for older learners which reflects a thorough knowledge of both reading and teaching as well as many years of experience in teaching this level Secondary School Reading is a good blend of theoretical constructs and practical application Its examples offer the teacher many ideas for learning activities Its appendices direct the reader to many sources of information and teaching materials
