The Transformation Of Violent Intercommunal Conflict:

The Transformation of Violent Intercommunal Conflict Stephen Ryan,2016-02-24 In recent years there has been a remarkable growth of interest in the concept of conflict transformation and the closely related strategy of grass roots peace building Yet there exists no general critical analysis of the concept of conflict transformation in the context of violent inter communal conflict and the different approaches that can be included in response to this category of dispute This study offers a comprehensive survey and critical overview of this emerging area Examining the reasons for the growing interest in the concept of conflict transformation in situations of ethnic conflict the book explores the different dimensions of transformation It draws on examples of strategies from a number of situations of ethnic conflict including Northern Ireland Israel Palestine Bosnia Kosovo Cyprus Spain Sri Lanka and the former Soviet Union to identify and assess key issues and problems that have emerged and ultimately to propose a stronger emphasis on the promotion of inter subjective understanding

Handbook of Conflict Analysis and Resolution Dennis J.D. Sandole,Sean Byrne,Ingrid

Sandole-Staroste,Jessica Senehi,2008-07-31 This major Handbook is a collection of work from leading scholars in the Conflict Analysis and Resolution CAR field The central theme is the value of interdisciplinary approaches to the analysis and resolution of conflicts

The New Politics of Conflict Resolution Morgan Brigg,2008-11-02 This book shows that the conflict resolution field often denies difference even as it attempts to implement a progressive and responsive politics Innovative theoretical analysis suggests ways of responding anew across difference and beyond dominant ways of thinking about political community and conflict

Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding Roger Mac Ginty,2013-02-15 This new Routledge

Handbook offers a comprehensive state of the art overview of the meanings and uses of the term peacebuilding and presents cutting edge debates on the practices conducted in the name of peacebuilding The term peacebuilding has had remarkable staying power Other terms such as conflict resolution have waned in popularity while the acceptance and use of the term peacebuilding has grown to the extent that it is the hegemonic and over arching term for many forms of mediation reconciliation and strategies to induce peace Despite this however it is rarely defined and often used to mean different things to different audiences Routledge Handbook of Peacebuilding aims to be a one stop comprehensive resource on the literature and practices of contemporary peacebuilding The book is organised into six key sections Section 1 Reading peacebuilding Section 2 Approaches and cross cutting themes Section 3 Disciplinary approaches to peacebuilding Section 4 Violence and security Section 5 Everyday living and peacebuilding Section 6 The infrastructure of peacebuilding This new Handbook will be essential reading for students of peacebuilding mediation and post conflict reconstruction and of great interest to students of statebuilding intervention civil wars conflict resolution war and conflict studies and IR in general Theories of International Relations and Northern Ireland Timothy J. White,2017-01-29 This book uses the case of Northern Ireland to evaluate theoretical approaches in international relations It investigates the process of negotiation that led to the signing of the Good Friday or Belfast Agreement and the continuing challenges to peace reconciliation in Northern Ireland

Incorporating the work of leading scholars it explores a wide range of topics including the function of deception in promoting peace the question of partition and how it was reimagined by nationalists such as John Hume and how the decommissioning process led to a role in internal policing for paramilitaries The influence of outside actors notably the United States and the European Union is also considered along with the involvement of the Catholic Church and the marginalization of women This book will be important for academics interested in theories of international relations and to a wider public interested in understanding the Northern Ireland peace process Economic Assistance and the Northern Ireland Conflict Sean Byrne,2009 However it is important to note that economic aid to promote a change in Northern Ireland's economic well being is also tied into the 1998 Good Friday Agreement which has at its center a comprehensive range of new political power sharing institutions

Hybridity on the Ground in Peacebuilding and Development Joanne Wallis,Lia Kent,Miranda Forsyth,Sinclair Dinnen,Srinjoy Bose,2018-03-01 Hybridity on the Ground in Peacebuilding and Development engages with the possibilities and pitfalls of the increasingly popular notion of hybridity The hybridity concept has been embraced by scholars and practitioners in response to the social and institutional complexities of peacebuilding and development practice In particular the concept appears well suited to making sense of the mutually constitutive outcomes of processes of interaction between diverse norms institutions actors and discourses in the context of contemporary peacebuilding and development engagements At the same time it has been criticised from a variety of perspectives for overlooking critical questions of history power and scale The authors in this interdisciplinary collection draw on their in depth knowledge of peacebuilding and development contexts in different parts of Asia the Pacific and Africa to examine the messy and dynamic realities of hybridity on the ground By critically exploring the power dynamics and the diverse actors ideas practices and sites that shape hybrid peacebuilding and development across time and space this book offers fresh insights to hybridity debates that will be of interest to both scholars and practitioners Hybridity has become an influential idea in peacebuilding and this volume will undoubtedly become the most influential collection on the idea Nuance and sophistication characterises this engagement with hybridity Professor John Braithwaite

Drug Problems Richard Isralowitz, Mohamed Afifi, Richard Rawson, 2002-01-30 Substance abuse and its social consequences are a major public concern for communities throughout the world. The motivations and consequences are deeply imbedded within the social and political structures of all countries whether they be well established democracies or developing nations. Every culture shapes the meaning of and responses to substances such as marijuana and heroin over time and across locations but the broader drug issue has become universal. As the sphere of the problem expands the experiences and solutions of each nation become more relevant to other countries. International concern over substance abuse has intensified as a result of the rise in production, use and trafficking of illicit drugs all over the world. Therefore the practical knowledge of policy development and abuse prevention and treatment strategies in the Middle East have increasing relevance for the rest of the world. Bibliographie Mensuelle United Nations Library (Geneva, Switzerland), 2007 From Civil Rights to Armalites Niall Ó Dochartaigh, 1997 This book describes and analyses political changes in Derry from the beginning of the civil rights movement in 1968 to the height of the Troubles in 1972 and explains how conditions were created for protracted conflict in those early years. The situation in Northern Ireland is distinguished above all by its duration. After rapidly pitching forward towards full scale civil war in the early 1970s the conflict was stabilized and brought under control. Despite predictions that the conflict would gradually dissipate it persisted over two decades. The city of Derry has been a principle focus for the conflict. It was in Derry that the early civil rights campaign focused the first rioting broke out and it was to Derry that the first British troops were sent in August 1969. By analyzing the development and escalation of the conflict in Derry this book provides a detailed examination of a number of broader issues. It seeks to explain how the civil rights campaign was superseded by a conflict, how large sections of the Catholic community became actively hostile to the Northern Ireland state, how the Protestant community was transformed by events and why the British army became a major party in the conflict. Ultimately it illustrates the way in which complex and durable relationships of confrontation were established and how these relationships created a political framework within which conflict could be sustained for decades.

Publisher description Small Arms Control Jayantha Dhanapala, United Nations Institute for Disarmament Research, 1999. The papers collected in this volume were originally prepared for four workshops organised by the UN Department for Disarmament Affairs to inform the work of the Panel of Governmental Experts on Small Arms. These workshops were held during 1995-96. Some of the authors updated their papers for publication in early 1998. Lora Lumpe, senior fellow with the Norwegian Initiative on Small Arms Transfers in Oslo and Tamar Gabelnick, Acting Director of the Arms Sales Monitoring Project at the Federation of American Scientists in Washington DC edited the presentations for this book. Ethnic Conflict and International Relations Stephen Ryan, 1995 The author traces the changes that have taken place in international politics since 1989 and the impact these have had on the global awareness that ethnic conflicts are a major problem for international society. Coverage includes the Kurdish, Bosnian and Sudanese conflicts. Peace Courier, 1995
