Tradition vs. Change in Chinua Achebe's "Things Fall Apart" ,2004-04-06 Seminar paper from the year 2002 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade A USA 1 Southern Connecticut State University English Department course The Contemporary African Novel language English abstract Things Fall Apart is a story about personal beliefs and customs and also a story about conflict There is struggle between family culture and religion of the Igbo people which is all brought on by a difference in personal beliefs and customs Finally we see how things fall apart when these beliefs and customs are confronted by those of the white missionaries According to Ernest N Emenyonu Things Fall Apart is a classic study of crosscultural misunderstanding and the consequences to the rest of humanity when a belligerent culture or civilization out of sheer arrogance and ethnocentrism takes it upon itself to invade another culture another civilization p 84 Chinua Achebe is a product of both native African and European culture Achebe s education in English and exposure to European customs have allowed him to capture at the same time the European and the African perspectives on colonial expansion religion race and culture This has a great effect on the composition of the novel because he is able to tell the story with an understanding and personal experiences in both cultures He does not portray the African culture and their beliefs as barbaric He simply tells it as it is and how things happened Chinua Achebe states that neither of the cultures were bad but they simply had a difference in beliefs In the first section of this paper I would like to outline some important aspects of the traditional Igbo culture as presented in Things Fall Apart Achebe argues that the white man has destroyed Igbo culture out of ignorance of the people s way of life and the white man s inability to speak the people s language The second section deals with Christianity and the colonizers I will compare the Igbo systems to a certain extent to the new system the white man brought to Nigeria Later on I will examine the effects of the colonizers arrival and their religion on the indigenous culture giving special attention to Okonkwo the main character of the novel Things Fall Apart, by Chinua Achebe M. Keith

in this part of West Africa Achebe's nineteenth century Africa witnesses the end of an era and the beginning of twentieth century Europeanization with all its implied consequences for another stage the future history of postcolonial Africa Things Fall Apart gives us a vision of the Ibo's life in a part of Africa called Umuofia its history and their cultural religious and political traditions Also it allows us an insight into the differences and problems between the established tradition that is the Ibo tradition and the emerging traditions of the white colonizers Things Fall Apart is not only the drama of a whole society but it also reflects the tragedy of one man Okonkwo that is worked out of his personal conflicts as well as out of the contrariness of his destiny This novel shows the changes which have taken place in Ibo as a result of the encounter between Europe and Africa during the imperial colonial period Things Fall Apart consists of three parts the first part is set in Umuofia before the arrival of the white men In the second part the protagonist's Okonkwo's banishment from Umuofia to Mbanta is dramatized and the arrival of the white men is reported The third section shows the tragic fall of Okonkwo and the decay of the old ways of life in Ibo society In my essay I want to discuss whether Achebe's novel is a diagnosis of decay or rather a report on Modernization In my first section I want to give a short insight into the traditional Ibo society The second part will focus on the thematic of decay both for the society as well as for Okonkwo In my next part I will concentrate on aspects of Modernization In the last part of this essay I will try bring this novel in a broader context and will try to examine the aspects of decay and Modernization on the basis of Foucault's discourse theory and therefore his theory on Modernization
