Thomas Wingfold George MacDonald,2021-04-11 She had just finished the novel of the day and was suffering a mild reaction the milder perhaps that she was not altogether satisfied with the consummation For the heroine had after much sorrow and patient endurance at length married a man whom she could not help knowing to be not worth having For the author even knew it only such was his reading of life and such his theory of artistic duty that what it was a disappointment to Helen to peruse it seemed to have been a comfort to him to write Indeed her dissatisfaction went so far that although the fire kept burning away in perfect content before her enhanced by the bellowing complaint of the wind in the chimney she yet came nearer thinking than she had ever been in her life Now thinking especially to one who tries it for the first time is seldom or never a quite comfortable operation and hence Helen was very near becoming actually uncomfortable She was even on the borders of making the unpleasant discovery that the business of life and that not only for North Pole expeditions African explorers pyramid inspectors and such like but for every man and woman born into the blindness of the planet is to discover after which discovery there is little more comfort to be had of the sort with which Helen was chiefly conversant But she escaped for the time after a very simple and primitive fashion although it was indeed a narrow escape Let me not be misunderstood however and supposed to imply that Helen was dull in faculty or that she contributed nothing to the bubbling of the intellectual pool in the social gatherings at Glaston Far from it When I say that she came near thinking I say more for her than any but the few who know what thinking is will understand for that which chiefly distinguishes man from those he calls the lower animals is the faculty he most rarely exercises True Helen supposed she could think like other people because the thoughts of other people had passed through her in tolerable plenty leaving many a phantom conclusion behind but this was THEIR thinking not hers She had thought no more than was necessary now and then to the persuasion that she saw what a sentence meant after which her acceptance or rejection of what was contained in it never more than lukewarm depended solely upon its relation to what she had somehow or other she could seldom have told how come to regard as the proper style of opinion to hold upon things in general Thomas Wingfold, Curate; Volume I George Macdonald,2023-07-18 This book is a novel about a young curate named Thomas Wingfold who struggles to reconcile his religious beliefs with his doubts and Back George MacDonald explores the profound struggles of faith vocation and moral integrity amid Victorian society's complexities. MacDonald's narrative style is characterized by its rich allegorical layers and strong character development, presenting complex emotional landscapes filled with philosophical musings. The intertwining of personal faith journeys with societal expectations not only engages readers but also stimulates reflection on the nature of redemption and duty. This literary work exemplifies MacDonald's commitment to addressing moral dilemmas, leaving a lasting impact on the reader's perception of spirituality and ethics in everyday life. George MacDonald (1824-1905) was a Scottish author and theologian, a pioneer of modern fantasy literature, and a formative influence on notable writers such as C.S. Lewis and J.R.R. Tolkien. His own experiences as a minister and his keen insights into the human condition are deftly woven into the narratives, reflecting his deep concerns for the spiritual well-being of individuals during a time of rapid social change. Such personal and professional backgrounds fortify his exploration of the interconnectedness of faith and practice. I wholeheartedly recommend this collection to readers seeking a profound examination of the intersection between faith and profession. MacDonald's eloquent prose and deep philosophical insights invite readers to reflect on their own values and beliefs, making these stories not only a compelling read but also an enduring source of inspiration.

THOMAS WINGFOLD, CURATE + PAUL FABER, SURGEON + THERE AND BACK - The Complete Series: The Curate's Awakening, The Lady's Confession & The Baron's Apprenticeship George MacDonald, 2015-10-20. This carefully crafted ebook THOMAS WINGFOLD CURATE PAUL FABER SURGEON THERE AND BACK The Complete Series The Curate's Awakening The Lady's Confession The Baron's Apprenticeship is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents. Thomas Wingfold Curate or The Curate's Awakening is the first novel of the series that begins with the story of a compliant and lifeless curate in the Church of England and the profound changes that happen in his life and the people around him. Thomas Wingfold is a clergyman who is losing belief in the faith but he goes through many transformations as the story unfolds. Paul Faber Surgeon or The Lady's Confession is the sequel to The Curate's Awakening and it tells the story of a village doctor and a proven atheist. His friend and village curate Thomas Wingfold is trying to bring him closer to the Church but constantly ends up failing in those attempts. Doctor believes that only victories and tragedies of life can bring one to Jesus. However, after one accident, Faber saves the life of a beautiful woman and they fall in love but her secret past comes in between. There and Back or The Baron's Apprenticeship is the third and final novel that completes the series. Another story about finding faith in God follows a life-changing journey of Baron Richard from skeptical atheist to a true believer. The main character sets quite an example of manhood for young people. George MacDonald (1824-1905) was a Scottish author, poet, and Christian minister. He was a pioneering figure in the field of fantasy literature and the mentor of fellow writer Lewis Carroll His writings have been cited as a major literary influence by many notable authors including W H Auden C S Lewis J R R Tolkien Walter de la Mare E Nesbit and Madeleine L Engle Thomas Wingfold Curate - Scholar's Choice Edition George MacDonald,2015-02-16 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Thomas Wingfold, Curate George MacDonald,2020-06-25 The curate remained with the organ It was silent and so were his lips but his heart the music was not latent there for his praise and thanksgiving ascended without voice or instrument essential harmony to the ear that hears thought and the heart that vibrates to every chord of feeling in the hearts it has created Ah what is it we send up thither where our thoughts are either a dissonance or a sweetness and a grace Alone in the dusky church the curate s ascended like a song of the angels for his heart was all a thanksgiving not for any perfected gift but for many a lovely hope He knelt down by the organ and worshipped the God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ that God and no other was the God of his expectation When he rose from his knees the church was dark but through the windows of the clerestory many stars were shining THOMAS WINGFOLD CURATE George 1824-1905

Thomas Wingfold, Curate George Macdonald,2018-02-10 A swift gray November wind had taken every chimney of the house for an organ pipe and was roaring in them all at once quelling the more distant and varied noises of the woods which moaned and surged like a sea Helen Lingard had not been out all day The morning indeed had been fine but she had been writing a long letter to her brother Leopold at Cambridge and had put off her walk in the neighbouring park till after luncheon and in the meantime the wind had risen and brought with it a haze that threatened rain She was in admirable health had never had a day's illness in her life was hardly more afraid of getting wet than a young farmer and enjoyed wind especially when she was on horseback

Enjoying the Track of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Thomas Wingfold Curate

In a global used by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and mental symphony created by the prepared term usually fade into the back ground, eclipsed by the constant sound and disturbances that permeate our lives.
