Southeast Asia Crossroads Of The World 2nd Edition:

International Relations in Southeast Asia Donald E. Weatherbee, 2009 This balanced comprehensive guide to Southeast Asian politics offers a sensible but nondogmatic realist approach to the region's international relations. In this revised second edition Donald E. Weatherbee lucidly explains the dynamics of the Southeast Asian subsystem as a struggle for autonomy in pursuit of national interests. He explores three important questions the answers to which will shape the future Southeast Asia. Will democratic regimes transform international relations in Southeast Asia? Will national leaders succeed in reinventing ASEAN as a more effective collaborative mechanism? Finally, how will the evolving Chinese position balancing and perhaps displacing the United States as Asia's great power affect Southeast Asia's struggle for autonomy?

Fieldwork and the Self Jérémie Jammes, Victor T. King, 2021-11-09

This book presents new perspectives on Southeast Asia using cases from a range of ethnic groups, cultures and histories written by scholars from different ethnicities, generations, disciplines and scientific traditions. It examines various research trajectories engaging with epistemological debates on the global and local, on insiders and outsiders, and the role played by personal experiences in the collection and analysis of empirical data. The volume provides subjects for debate rarely addressed in formal approaches to data gathering and analysis. Rather than grappling with the usual methodological building blocks of research training, it focuses on neglected issues in the research experience including chance, error, coincidence, mishap, dead ends, silence, secrets, improvisation, remembering, digital challenges and shifting tracks. Fieldwork and the Self is relevant to academics and researchers from universities and international organisations who are engaged in teaching and learning in area studies and social science research methods. A rich and compelling set of writings about fieldwork in and beyond Southeast Asia. Lyn Parker, Emeritus Professor, University of Western Australia. A must read for all, especially emerging scholars on Southeast Asia and a refreshing read for critical old hands on the region. Abdul Rahman Embong, Emeritus Professor, Institute of Malaysian and International Studies (IKMAS), Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. An impressive collection of essays by two academics who have devoted their academic life to anthropological fieldwork in Southeast Asia. Shamsul A. B. Distinguished Professor and UNESCO Chair, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia. The contributors share an unquenchable and passionate curiosity for Southeast Asia. They have survived the uncertainties and disillusionment of their fieldwork and remained first grade scholars. Marie Sybille de Vienne, Professor, National Institute for Oriental Languages and Civilisations, Paris. A penetrating reflection on current social science research on Southeast Asia. Hans Dieter Evers, Professor Emeritus and Senior Fellow, University of Bonn. Southeast Asia, Clark D. Neher, 2004. America's Strategy in Southeast Asia, James A. Tyner, 2006-12-21. Geography encompasses everything from the local where human beings live, work and travel to metageographies like nations and regions. James A. Tyner's inventive and multidisciplinary ideas on geography similarly range from the personal his father's experience in the military during the Vietnam War to a broad discussion of how the United States has come to exercise power through the production of geographic knowledge in this case in Southeast Asia Since the end of the Second World War Southeast Asia has served as a surrogate space to further American imperial interests which are economic political territorial and moral in scope America's Strategy in Southeast Asia contends that the construction of Southeast Asia as a geographic entity has been a crucial component in the creation of the American empire For example America's most blatant experience of colonial rule occurred the Philippines America's longest war was fought in Vietnam and most recently some American policymakers have identified Southeast Asia as the Second Front in the War on Terror Yet America's overriding strategy in Southeast Asia and the region itself remains something of a mystery for the American populace a black box in America's geographical imagination This clear and innovative book educates readers about Southeast Asia's importance in American foreign policy
