Arquitectos mexicanos II Fernando De Haro, 1999 At this moment it is interesting to observe in this book that despite an apparent unity there is a wide variety of individual interpretations of Mexican culture This is how the possibilities of Mexican Architecture acquire greater wealth nonetheless it is essential that architects and those who sponsor architecture have an ever growing understanding and respect for our background and culture Arquitectos mexicanos III Fernando de Haro Lebrija, Omar Fuentes Elizondo, 2000 Celebrating Mexico's bright residential architecture from old palaces and lordly haciendas to homes and state of the art apartment buildings this book details how architects have managed to integrate and balance proportion functionality and materials in a variety of spaces Highlighted is the idea that if one loses the concept of human scale warmth is lost spaces become too confined and lighting and nature are forgotten Individuals learn that the selection of materials the notion of dimensions and the use of light that Mexicans have made part of their roots generate a cleaner and more luminous residential architecture Interiores mexicanos AM Editores, 2004-05-01 Interior designers strive to create the perfect inner world by using proportion texture form and color They not only want their creations to be comfortable and pleasing but to also reflect their personality The Interiores Mexicanos series demonstrates the creativity and excellence of some of the most talented interior designers in Mexico today those that are contributing innovating reinterpreting and blazing new paths in a truly significant way This collection of books is a source of inspiration After all we can go from an urban setting to a country home or beach house a modern office building to a classic old home or rustic bungalow all with the simple turn of a page From the City as a Project to the City Project Fernando Carrión

Mena, Sebastián Rodríguez Álvarez, 2025-09-26 The city has historically been conceived as a project with a sense of duty to be it is the prefiguration of a reality that emerges from the negation of the pre-existing city The city anticipates a desired future from an ideal perspective that tends to overcome the existing structural or particular challenges of the present It can be argued that this proposition represents the historical trajectory of urban thought on a planetary scale Therefore the prospective dimension of the city constituted a central dynamic in urban theory throughout history leading to the emergence of planning as a key approach The history of the city as a project is the core of the first volume in this two part contribution It presents an overview of diverse city projects that have been pursued throughout history providing a framework for exploring new perspectives of urban development The cities profiled and analyzed here reflect a living catalog of initiatives that can inform promising directions More than a compilation this volume compares and critically assesses these historical projects to provide a grounding for the contemporary advances presented in the second volume Interiores mexicanos Fernando de Haro Lebrija, Fernando de Haro, Omar Fuentes, 2006 Intimate spaces are today a refuge for people in a world plunging relentlessly into homogenization This is where we can still find our very own essence express our individuality obtain the satisfaction afforded by our most treasured possessions and enjoy the visual beauty of small or large works of art along with their colors textures aromas sounds and settings This is also where architects and designers enter the stage the former to offer a suitable environment characterized by harmonious shapes and proportions and the latter to specify the textures colors ornaments and furniture The two come together to create interior spaces like the ones we will see on these pages that will always be a source of joy to whoever lives in them Artbibliographies Modern, 1993 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Espacios en arquitectura Fernando de Haro Lebrija, 1999

Cascio, 2005-05

Arquitectos Mexicanos Fernando de Haro Lebrija, Omar Fuentes Elizondo, 2004 La casa habitaci n implica la puesta en marcha de funci n y est tica de manera conjunta Se trata de un reto apasionante para cualquier arquitecto puesto que exige la aplicaci n de todo su oficio y recursos profesionales para lograr un objetivo Pero va m s all llega incluso al grado de involucrarse personal y emocionalmente con el tema del dise o y con la alt sima responsabilidad que representa Por todas estas circunstancias resulta de gran interés examinar cada una de las propuestas que se incluyen en esta edición y analizar los diferentes caminos que condujeron a su realización final. El resultado, sin duda alguna, es el hallazgo de un denominador común que es justamente la diversidad como indicador del dinamismo que caracteriza el quehacer arquitectónico actual, reflejo a su vez del tiempo en que nos ha tocado vivir.
