Speaking In Gods Name Islamic Law Authority And Women:

Speaking in God's Name Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2014-10-01 Drawing on both religious and secular sources this challenging book argues that divinely ordained law is frequently misinterpreted by Muslim authorities at the expense of certain groups including women Khaled Abou El Fadl cites a series of injustices in Islamic society and ultimately proposes a return to the original ethics at the heart of the Muslim legal system Speaking in God's Name Khaled Abou El Fadl, 2001 Drawing on both religious and secular sources this challenging book argues that divinely ordained law is frequently misinterpreted by Muslim authorities at the expense of certain groups including women Khaled Abou El Fadl cites a series of injustices in Islamic society and ultimately proposes a return to the original ethics at the heart of the Muslim legal system

Women's Rights and Islamic Family Law Lynn Welchman, 2004-06 Explores the present day realities of Islamic family law with particular emphasis on the rights of women and focusing on law in its living social context as reflected in public opinion and personal experience Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi. Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general. This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so called Islamic feminist theory. The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism American Muslim Women, Religious Authority, and Activism Julianne Hammer, 2012-04-01 Hammer looks at the work of significant female American Muslim writers scholars and activists since 1990 using their writings as a lens for a larger discussion of Muslim intellectual production in America and beyond. Centered on the controversial women led Friday prayer in March 2005 Hammer uses this event and its aftermath to address themes of faith community and public opinion. While gender is the catalyst for Hammer's study her examination of these women's intellectual output touches on themes central to contemporary Islam authority tradition Islamic law justice and authenticity

The Sharia. Where did Islamic Law come from? Peter Krause, 2018-03-12 Essay from the year 2014 in the subject Orientalism Sinology Islamic Studies grade 2 0 University of Exeter language English abstract Thinking about where Islamic Law comes from we have to distinguish between the scientific side fiqh and the religious side the revealed texts. With God as the legislator society has to incorporate the given rules into daily life. However they are not always clear so frictions are attempted to be solved using the four sources of Islamic Law. Hence Islamic Law can not exist just as a fixed statute which regulates rights and duties of Muslims. It is more a method to interpret what the law includes influenced strongly by the opinions of different legal scholars. There exists therefore an uncertainty in what the law finally includes because of disagreements between scholars called ikhtilaf God Loves Diversity and Justice Susanne Scholz, 2013-05-16 Both personal and scholarly in tone this book encourages readers to think theologically ethically and politically about the statement that declares God loves diversity and justice The multi religious multi ethnic multi disciplinary and multi gendered identities of the eleven contributors and two respondents deepen the conversation It considers questions such as Do we affirm or challenge this theological statement Do we concentrate on God in our response or do we interrogate what diversity and justice mean in light of God s love for diversity and justice Alternatively do we prefer to ponder the verb to love and consider what it might mean for society if people really believed in a divinity loving diversity and justice Of course there are no easy and simple answers whether we consult the Sikh scriptures the Bible the Qur an the movies the Declaration of Human Rights or the transgender movement but the effort is worthwhile The result is a serious historical literary cultural and religious discourse that fends against intellectually rigid thought and simplistic belief systems across the religious spectrum In our world in which so much military unrest and violence economic inequities and religious strife prevail such a conversation nurtures theological ethical and political possibilities of inclusion and justice Islam and Gender Adis

Gender Jihad Amina Wadud,2013-10-01 A world renowned professor of Islamic studies Amina Wadud has long been at the forefront of what she calls the gender jihad the struggle for justice for women within the global Islamic community In 2005 she made international headlines when she helped to promote new traditions by leading the Muslim Friday prayer in New York City provoking a firestorm of media controversy and kindling charges of blasphemy among conservative Muslims worldwide In this provocative book Inside the Gender Jihad Wadud brings a wealth of experience from the trenches of the jihad to make a passionate argument for gender inclusiveness in the Muslim world Knitting together scrupulous scholarship with lessons drawn from her own experiences as a woman she explores the array of issues facing Muslim women today including social status education sexuality and leadership A major contribution to the debate on women and Islam Amina Wadud s vision for changing the status of women within Islam is both revolutionary and urgent Speaking in God's Name Khaled Abou El Fadl,2001-08 This challenging new book reviews the ethics at the heart of the Islamic legal system and suggests that these laws have been misinterpreted by certain sources in an attempt to control women Islam and the Rule of Law ,2003 Die Welt des Islams ,2007 Ethical Issues in Six Religious Traditions Clive Lawton,Peggy Morgan,2007 This book draws together authors respected in six traditions to explore in parallel the ethical foundations for Hindu Buddhist Sikh Jewish Christian and Muslim faiths Each section introduces a different religion and asks specific topical questions set in a wider context 2003, 『الإسلام والقانون والعدالة』 And God Knows the Soldiers Khaled Abou El Fadl,2001-09-05 This is a substantially expanded edition of the author s seminal work The Authoritative and Authoritarian in Islamic Discourses A Contemporary Case Study Beginning with the case study of a Muslim basketball player who refused to stand up while the American national anthem was playing the author documents the disintegration of the Islamic juristic tradition and the prevalence of authoritarianism in contemporary Muslim discourses The author analyzes the rise of what he describes as puritan and despotic trends in modern Islam and asserts that such trends nullify the richness and diversity of the Islamic tradition By declaring themselves the true soldiers of God and the defenders of religion Muslim puritan movements are able to degrade women eradicate critical thinking and empty Islam of its moral content In effect the author argues the self declared protectors of Islam become its despots and oppressors who suppress the dynamism and vigor of the Islamic message Anchoring himself in the rich Islamic jurisprudential tradition the author argues for upholding the authoritativeness of the religious text without succumbing to authoritarian methodologies of interpretation Ultimately the author asserts that in order to respect the integrity of the Divine laws it is necessary to adopt rigorous analytical methodologies of interpretation and to re investigate the place of morality in modern Islam The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences ,2007 When Legal Worlds Overlap International Council on Human Rights Policy,2009 4e de couv This report highlights human rights impacts and dilemmas associated with plural state and non state laws such as family laws based on religion customary justice practices and Alternative Dispute Resolution mechanisms Drawing on examples of such plural legal orders from around the world it proposes principles and a framework to guide human rights practitioners and policy makers The report also identifies challenges related to incorporation of non state law in state law recognition of cultural differences in law and justice sector reform Emphasising the contested nature of culture especially when dealing with gender equality religious freedom and indigenous peoples rights it calls for evidence based assessments of plural legal orders that give special attention to people on the margins of state and non state law and equality between and within communities Islam and Peacemaking in the Middle East Nathan C. Funk,Abdul Aziz Said,2009 Islam and Peacemaking in the Middle East begins with a set of provocative questions How for example do Muslims conceive of peace To what degree do differences in the interpretation of Islam affect the ways in which peace is sought in the contemporary Middle East Through analysis of regional trends and case studies the authors explore various Islamic ideas of peace and their bearing on difficult ethnic nationalist and civic conflicts The result widens the parameters for serious discussion of Islam s contributions real and potential to ongoing negotiations The authors explore varying Islamic conceptions of peace and their bearing on ethnic nationalist and civil conflicts in the contemporary Middle East Islamic Philosophy, Theology and Mysticism Majid Fakhry,2000 From the introduction of Greek philosophy into the Muslim world in the eighthcentury to modern times this book charts the evolution and interaction of philosophy theology and mysticism in the Islamic context In a succinct but comprehensive guide the author highlights key individuals movements concepts and writings and explores the conflicts and controversies between different philosophical parties that have characterised the development of Islamic thought The book also features coverage of the translation of ancient texts and their transmission to the Muslim world the development of systematic philosophy in Islam theology mysticism and the development of sufism Islam's interaction with western philosophy and theology on contemporary trends This accessible book should be of interest to students scholars and all those interested in broadening their knowledge of the Islamic tradition Muslim Modernities Amyn Sajoo,2008-06-30 This book is about Muslim encounters with the modern how Islam and those in its orbit have shaped and been shaped by histories that are overlapping and distinctive Identity and citizenship piety and protest music and modes of dress are explored as expressions that bear on the making and remaking of modern public spheres Muslim as well as non Muslim scholars show in these pages that tradition and religiosity alike are active players in the making of the modern A vital theme is the role of the ethical imagination in expressions of the civil fed by the diversity of religious and cultural narratives as sources of the self This can be seen in struggles for civil society and democratic citizenship in the grappling with new technologies and in the challenges of political violence Since the events of September 11 2001 a failure to come to grips with plural modernities has spurred claims about a clash of civilizations Fresh perspectives are offered here on what it is to be Muslim and modern mindful of the rich narratives that inform both identities BOOK JACKET
