

Speaking Journals

Record and listen to yourself speaking English every week to improve your fluency, confidence, grammar, vocabulary, and/or pronunciation. Here's how:

1. Pick a topic. For example...

- Describe your best friend
- Describe your hometown
- Describe your apartment
- Describe your favorite holiday
- Describe a meaningful gift you received
- Talk about what you did yesterday
- Tell a story about arriving in MN
- Tell a story about your first day of school
- Tell a story about your last birthday party
- Tell a story about a time you got lost
- Tell a story about something embarrassing that happened to you
- Tell a story about a vacation you took
- Tell a story about something in your life that seemed bad but turned out to be good
- Tell a story about a family memory
- Summarize your favorite movie or book (using past tense!)
- Summarize an article or chapter you read for a class
- Read or listen to a news story. Then summarize it and give your opinion on it
- Summarize a research article and give your opinion on it or explain why it's important in your field
- Compare and contrast your country and the US
- Compare and contrast your mom and dad
- Compare and contrast high school and college
- Compare and contrast winter and summer
- Practice a presentation you need to give
- Practice answering common job interview questions
- Describe your plans for the weekend
- Describe your plans for the next year
- Describe your plans for the next 5 years
- Explain and support your opinion on the death penalty
- Explain and support your opinion on a controversial topic in your field

2. Record yourself talking on your phone for a full 5 minutes. (Want more of a challenge? Do 10 minutes!)

3. Listen to your recording and write notes on problems you hear (pausing, speed, pronunciation of sounds, intonation, word stress, vocabulary, grammar, etc.).

4. Record yourself again (same topic, same time limit), trying to improve a few problems that you noticed.
