Special Education in Practice Leah Wasburn-Moses, 2025-06-03 This concise yet comprehensive text offers an introduction to special education practice. It covers the basics in the field including key definitions, history and policy and focuses on evidence based practices in teaching strategies for inclusive schools and classrooms and contemporary issues affecting at risk students more broadly. The book consists of six chapters designed to fit within various models of practice based preparation and invites deliberate connections between the ideas it presents and the active classroom practice it encourages. Each chapter features suggested collaboration and practice activities and inquiry activities presented in the last chapter align with the 22 High Leverage Practices (HLPs) identified by leading researchers in the field. Special Education in Practice is an ideal text for teacher candidates in any licensure or teacher preparation program working within a practice based setting.

Your IEP Playbook Lisa Lightner, 2025-10-13 An easy to understand guide to navigating and implementing your child's individualized education plan (IEP). In Your IEP Playbook: A Parent's Guide to Confident Advocacy, disability parent and special education advocate Lisa Lightner delivers a practical guide for parents and caregivers of children with disabilities doing their best to navigate their individualized education plans (IEPs). This collection of realistic and implementable advice walks you through how to apply federal and state law in your unique situation, develop an advocacy strategy that works and collaborate with schools and the professionals involved in your child's education. You'll learn about common mistakes made by people advocating for a child with special education needs and how to avoid them. You'll also discover how to ensure that your child's needs and priorities aren't overlooked or under-supported. The book also contains advice on how to break down and understand the different parts of an IEP, including what they mean, how to read one and what to document. Guidance and reproducible exercises to determine, reach and monitor progress of IEP goals. Strategies for composing advocacy letters to your child's school and how to time them for maximum impact.
