• What You Can Do Helping others is a great way to feel good. If you want to help others, there are lots of ways to do it. You can volunteer at a local animal shelter, food bank, or hospital. You can also help out at your school or community center.

“We’re really supposed to help?” I ask, sitting in a dark, plush theater box overlooking a packed audience. “I mean, we’re not here to make them feel bad, right?”

1960s. Since then, however, the situation has changed. The growth of the economy has been slow, and the rate of inflation has been high. The government has been unable to control the economy, and the country has been plagued by political instability. The economy is heavily dependent on oil exports, and the price of oil has been volatile. The government has been unable to diversify the economy, and the country has been unable to develop a strong industrial base.
