Sustainability & Historic Preservation Richard W. Longstreth, 2011-02-24 Sustainability and Historic Preservation Towards a Holistic View broadens the horizons of the mushrooming drive to correlate the objectives of these two spheres To date discussions of the relationship between historic preservation and sustainability have generally focused on the energy consumption of buildings The nine chapters in this book show how that agenda can and should be expanded by examining many other facets of the environment including agricultural lands urban waterworks irrigation systems natural settings an arboretum and post World War II suburbs Written by specialists from a variety of disciplines anthropology architecture landscape architecture and urban history among them the contents explore new realms in which historic preservation and sustainability can have common purpose This book addresses subjects of concern to many persons engaged in both fields and argues the case for creating a greater spectrum of common ground between them Sustainability & Historic Preservation Richard Longstreth, 2011-02-24 Sustainability and Historic Preservation Towards a Holistic View broadens the horizons of the mushrooming drive to correlate the objectives of these two spheres To date discussions of the relationship between historic preservation and sustainability have generally focused on the energy consumption of buildings The nine chapters in this book show how that agenda can and should be expanded by examining many other facets of the environment including agricultural lands urban waterworks irrigation systems natural settings an arboretum and post World War II suburbs Written by specialists from a variety of disciplines anthropology architecture landscape architecture and urban history among them the contents explore new realms in which historic preservation and sustainability can have common purpose This book addresses subjects of concern to many persons engaged in both fields and argues the case for creating a greater spectrum of common ground between them Iconic Planned Communities and the Challenge of Change Mary Corbin Sies, Isabelle Gournay, Robert Freestone, 2019-08-23 In the history of planning the design of an entire community prior to its construction is among the oldest traditions Iconic Planned Communities and the Challenge of Change explores the twenty first century fortunes of planned communities around the world Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives the editors and contributors examine what happened to planned communities after their glory days had passed and they became vulnerable to pressures of growth change and even decline Beginning with Robert Owen s industrial village in Scotland and concluding with Robert Davis s neotraditional resort haven in Florida this book documents the effort to translate optimal design into sustaining a common life that works for changing circumstances and new generations of residents Basing their approach on historical research and practical on the ground considerations the essayists argue that preservation efforts succeed best when they build upon foundational planning principles address landscape architecture and social engineering together and respect the spirit of place Presenting twenty three case studies located in six continents each contributor considers how to preserve the spirit of the community and its key design elements and the ways in which those elements can be adapted to contemporary circumstances and changing demographics Iconic Planned Communities and the Challenge of Change espouses strategies to achieve critical resilience and emphasizes the vital connection between heritage preservation equitable sharing of the benefits of living in these carefully designed places and sustainable development Communities Bat ovany Partiz nske Cit Frug s Colonel Light Gardens Den en Ch fu Garbatella Greenbelt Hampstead Garden Suburb Jardim Am rica Letchworth Garden City Menteng New Lanark Pacaemb Radburn Riverside R merstadt Sabaudia Seaside Soweto Sunnyside Gardens Tapiola The Uplands Welwyn Garden City Wythenshawe Contributors Arnold R Alanen Carlos Roberto Monteiro de Andrade Sandra Annunziata Robert Freestone Christine Garnaut Isabelle Gournay Michael Hebbert Susan R Henderson James Hopkins Steven W Hurtt Alena Kubova Gauch Jean Fran ois Lejeune Maria Cristina a Silva Leme Larry McCann Mervyn Miller John Minnery Angel David Nieves John J Pittari Jr Gilles Ragot David Schuyler Mary Corbin Sies Christopher Silver Andr Sorensen R Bruce Stephenson Shun ichi J Watanabe

Heritage Planning Harold Kalman, Marcus R. Létourneau, 2020-11-29 This new and substantially revised edition of Heritage Planning Principles and Process offers an extensive overview of the burgeoning fields of heritage planning and conservation Positioning professional practice within its broader applied and theoretical contexts the authors provide a firm foundation for understanding the principles history evolution debates and tools that inform heritage planning while also demonstrating how to effectively enact these processes Few published works focus on the practice of heritage planning The first edition of this book was developed to fill this gap and this second edition builds upon it The book has been expanded in scope to incorporate new research and approaches as well as a wide range of international case studies New themes reflect the emerging recognition that sustainability climate resilience human rights social justice and reconciliation are fundamental to the future of planning Heritage Planning is indispensable reading not only for professionals who transform the built environment but for anyone who wants to understand the ideas and practices of heritage planning and conservation For the benefit of student readers twelve chapters designed to accommodate the academic semester are augmented with concise summaries key terms and definitions questions and learning objectives

Integrated Evaluation for the Management of Contemporary Cities Giulio Mondini, Enrico Fattinnanzi, Alessandra Oppio, Marta Bottero, Stefano Stanghellini, 2018-06-06 This book highlights a selection of the best papers presented at the 2016 SIEV conference The Laudato s Encyclical Letter and Valuation Cities between Conflict and Solidarity Decay and Regeneration Exclusion and Participation which was held in Rome Italy in April 2016 and brought together experts from a diverse range of fields economics appraisal architecture energy urban planning sociology and the decision sciences and government representatives The book is divided into four parts Human Ecology Values and Paradigms Integral Ecology and Natural Resource Management Intergenerational Equity and How to Enhance Dialogue and Transparency in Decision making Processes Cities are where 72% of all Europeans live and this percentage is expected to rise to 80% by 2050 Given this trend towards urbanization cities are continuously growing which also entails a growing risk of social segregation lack of security and mounting environmental problems All too often today's cities have to cope with social and environmental crises shifting the European urban agenda towards regeneration processes Urban regeneration is more complex than merely renovating existing buildings as it also involves social and environmental problems inhabitants quality of life protecting tangible and intangible cultural resources innovation and business Time Frames Ugo Carughi, Massimo Visone, 2017-04-28 11 Post tradition in Japanese culture Heritage 12 Industrial architecture 13 Landscape architecture 14 Middle class housing Memory 15 Cultural institutions 16 Architectural photography Conservation 17 Laws and regulations 18 Technology Economy 19 Economic analysis Index of places Index of names Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1995 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Department of the Interior and Related Agencies, 1994 Preservation, 2009 Environmental Comment, 1979 Moral Geographies David Marshall Smith, 2000 This book explores the interface between geography ethics and morality It considers questions that have haunted the past are subjects of controversy in the present and which affect the future Does distance diminish responsibility Should we interfere with the lives of those we do not know Is there a distinction between private and public space Which values and morals if any are absolute and which cultural communal or personal And are universal rights consistent with respect for difference David Smith shows how these questions play themselves out in politics planning development social and personal relations the exploitation of resources and competition for territory After introducing the essential elements of moral philosophy from Plato to postmodernism he examines the moral significance of concepts of landscape location and place proximity distance and community space and territory justice and nature He is concerned above all with the morality people practice to see how this varies according to geographical context and to assess the inevitability of its outcomes His argument is seamlessly interwoven with everyday observation and vividly described case studies the latter include genocide and rescue during the Holocaust the conflicts over space between Israel and Palestine and within Israel itself and the social tensions and aspirations in post apartheid South Africa The meaning possibility and limits of social justice lie at the heart of the book That geographical context is vital to the understanding of moral practice and ethical theory is its central proposition The book is clearly and engagingly written The author has a student readership in mind but his book will appeal widely to geographers and others involved in planning development politics social theory and the analysis of the contemporary world

Environmental Ethics Louis P. Pojman, 2001 Organized into two main parts the first on theory and the second on applications the third edition of this popular anthology provides the most comprehensive set of readings available for environmental ethics and includes topic areas not covered in other anthologies The text follows a dialogic pro con format to present different and conflicting views on each topic Articles have been carefully selected for clarity and accessibility
