Laika Leave Earth on a One-Way Spaceship? David Ann, Many people on Earth wanted to explore space But space is a distant dangerous place However sending humans into space was risky So the Soviet Union now Russia sent an animal into space first The hero of this story was a dog named Laika On November 3 1957 Laika went to space on a spacecraft called Sputnik 2 Laika Thadeu Vieira,2019-10-22 The 1950s were a turbulent time in history as the United States and the Soviet Union were in a frenetic race to reconnoiter the frontier of space By 1957 the Soviets had jettisoned Sputnik II carrying the first ever living being to go to space Laika Laika the genesis of space exploration symbolized not only the zenith of pertinacity but the engenderment of curiosity into actualization So many children today still turn their heads towards the stars and beyond and their inquisitive nature is pivotal in their ebullient curiosity Their questions need to be answered so that one day they will answer questions we never thought to ask And who better for them to ask than the dog who went to space in the first place The creative design of the book introduces Laika to the audience through jocular dialogue embellished by furtive delineations of spaceships spacesuits Laika herself and much more The children in the storyline ask insightful questions about gravity the atmosphere lunar craters and why we can't breathe in space Laika answers them through detailed explanations sure to provoke more questions Ultimately the book reminds the kids to keep looking towards the stars and that they will change the world Moreover it reminds those of us living in today's world that there is meaning to be found not only in our lives but beyond Space Dogs Justin Ball,Evan Croker,2009-02-19 It all begins with Laika the first dog in space Launched into orbit by the Soviet Union Laika's craft is accidentally sucked through a wormhole and onto the Planet Gersbach inhabited by highly intelligent but very tiny people When a mysterious disturbance of gravity D O G threatens to destroy Gersbach Commanders Belka and Strelka are just the men to seek and destroy the source of D O G Their vehicle A highly sophisticated craft that looks exactly like a terrier Blending in with the locals on earth should be no problem And with the help of the Buckleys a lovable Earth family with problems of their own the mission to save their planet may still prevail
