Space Paws Alison Diary:

Changing Representations of Nature and the City Gabriel N. Gee, Alison Vogelaar, 2018-07-04 The turn of the 1960s 70s characterized by the rapid acceleration of globalization prompted a radical transformation in the perception of urban and natural environments. The urban revolution and related prospect of the total urbanisation of the planet in concert with rapid population growth and resource exploitation instigated a surge in environmental awareness and activism. One implication of this moment is a growing recognition of the integration and interconnection of natural and urban entities. The present collection is an interdisciplinary inquiry into the changing modes of representation of nature in the city beginning from the turn of the 1960s 70s. Bringing together a number of different disciplinary approaches including architectural studies and aesthetics, heritage studies and economics, environmental science and communication, the collection reflects upon the changing perception of socio natures in the context of increasing urban expansion and global interconnectedness as they are manifest in specific representations. Using cases studies from around the globe the collection offers a historical and theoretical understanding of a paradigmatic shift whose material and symbolic legacies are still accompanying us in the early 21st century.

Contemporary Scottish Women Writers Alison Lumsden, Aileen Christianson, 2019-06-01 This collection of essays by both new and established critics provides stimulating readings of many of the Scottish women writers working in Scots and English today. A variety of critical approaches ensures diversity in these essays on fiction, poetry and drama. While in the growing field of Scottish women's writing it is impossible to be all encompassing, these essays cover a wide range from the most established Muriel Spark to newer writers such as Laura Hird. It includes new readings of Janice Galloway and A L Kennedy and examines the work of poets such as Carol Ann Duffy and Kate Clanchy, dramatists such as Sharman Macdonald and Sue Glover as well as writers including Jackie Kay who cross genre boundaries. Exploring the interface between gender and nation as well as the excitement and energy generated by much of this writing, these essays fill a gap in critical response to contemporary Scottish women writers. Contributors to this volume include Carol Anderson, Barbara Bell, Helen Boden, Sarah M Dunnigan, Ksenija Horvat, Margery Palmer, McCulloch, Glenda Norquay, Lynne Stark, Susan Triesman. Features: The first book to present a range of critical responses to contemporary Scottish women writers. Contemporary both in terms of the subject matter and the critical theoretical approaches. Looks at a range of genres: fiction, poetry, drama.
