Beeline Shalini Shankar,2019-04-30 An anthropologist uses spelling bees as a lens to examine the unique and diverse traits of Generation Z and why they are destined for success At first glance Generation Z youth born after 1997 seems to be made up of anxious overachievers hounded by Tiger Moms and constantly tracked on social media One would think that competitors in the National Spelling Bee the most popular brain sport in America would be the worst off Counterintuitively anthropologist Shalini Shankar argues that far from being simply overstressed and overscheduled Gen Z spelling bee competitors are learning crucial twenty first century skills from their high powered lives displaying a sophisticated understanding of self promotion self direction and social mobility Drawing on original ethnographic research including interviews with participants judges and parents Shankar examines the outsize impact of immigrant parents and explains why Gen Z kids are on a path to success Roll of Honour ,2015-12-10 The most outstanding young achievers all in one place right at the top Read about them and be inspired Here s your chance to meet the high performing young Indians who have excelled in different fields from studies to sports scientific innovations to community projects acts of bravery to subject Olympiads TV and cinema to language and big ideas Roll of Honour is a ready reckoner of brilliant successes complete with lively lists and inspiring information Featuring spelling bee winners national examination toppers sports champions Olympiad toppers and science fair stars this is a comprehensive Who s Who of young people who have set the bar high gained recognition and won accolades for their commendable achievements in school and outside of it Alongside Indian children and teens there are foreign role models too besides the best schools in the country quiz winners and the setters of some fascinating records So what are you waiting for Find out if you are already in here Functional Training Handbook Craig Liebenson,2014 Training has many different connotations depending on one s perspective Traditionally for healthy individuals or athletes it focused on strength flexibility or cardiovascular training Such training would normally be supervised by a personal fitness trainer or strength and conditioning S C coach This book promotes a different approach in that the aim of training is to promote athletic development 1 2 From the perspective of sustainable athletic development training is not limited to strength flexibility or cardiovascular domains but also focuses on the fundamental A B Cs of agility balance and coordination as a foundation for enhanced movement literacy 3 Provided by publisher Where there's a Will... Motivation and Volition in College Teaching and Learning Michael Theall,John M. Keller,2018-02-26 Motivating students a primary goal of education is complex to say the least This issue focuses on a model for motivation volition and performance that acknowledges the importance of volition as action subsequent to motivation action that leads to improved performance This MVP model provides a framework for considering various teaching and learning topics and can be extended into other areas such as professional development While models such as MVP are particularly helpful in establishing the relationships among constructs and in explaining theoretical bases integration and application of such models are equally important This issue discusses applications of the model and provide concrete ideas for integrating it into ongoing teaching practice This is the 152nd volume of this Jossey Bass higher education series It offers a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers Sesquipedalia! Scott B.
