existing archives and slowly began to support the production of new Australian content with an increasingly global focus. However, the formal arrival of online TV certainly did not usher in the boom in original local television drama many anticipated. Pivoting and Producing for Online TV: Australia's Transition advances the macro analysis of television production strategies. This book will be useful to students and researchers interested in media, film, and cultural studies. Comparison of Information in TV Advertisements in the United States of America and South Korea Jae Yung Cho, 1988 Television's Streaming Wars Arienne Ferchaud, Jennifer M. Proffitt, 2023-11-03 This volume addresses contemporary debates and trends regarding the production and distribution content and audience engagement with the television streaming industry. The book interrogates the economics and structure of the industry, questions the types and diversity of content perpetuated on streaming services, and addresses how audiences engage with content from US and global perspectives and within various research paradigms. Chapters address the television streaming wars, including the debates and trends in terms of its production and competition, diversity and growth of programming, and audience consumption, focusing on multiple platforms, content, and users. This timely and creative volume will interest students and scholars working in television studies, media industry studies, popular culture studies, audience studies, media psychology, critical cultural studies, and media economics.
