

Reading Comprehension

Read the short passage and answer the questions.

The Dog and the Shadow

It happened that a Dog had got a piece of meat and was carrying it home in his mouth to eat it in peace. Now on his way home, he had to cross a plank lying across a running brook. As he crossed, he looked down and saw his own shadow reflected in the water beneath. Thinking it was another dog with another piece of meat, he made up his mind to have that also. So he made a snap at the shadow in the water, but as he opened his mouth the piece of meat fell out, dropped into the water and was never seen more.

1. What animal was crossing a board?

2. What did the dog have in his mouth?

3. What did the dog see in the running brook?

4. What is the moral of the story?

Brilliant

Activities for Reading Comprehension Year 2 Charlotte Makhlof,2015-12-02 The importance of being able to read for meaning should never be underestimated The ability to decode text is not enough It is vital that children understand what they are reading More importantly it is fundamental that they enjoy what they are reading so that they grow up to become lifelong readers The passages in the Brilliant Activities for Reading Comprehension series are designed to do just that They provide children with a variety of engaging enjoyable texts that will grab their attention and indeed their teacher's attention as well. The types of comprehension passages range from newspaper articles and dialogues to plays, stories and poems. They gradually increase in difficulty as you progress through the book and through the series, encouraging children to develop their ability to read for meaning and use a range of strategies to engage with the text. Tasks range from simple factual recall and vocabulary work to more open ended questions, enabling the reader to provide a more personal response. The cross curricular activities provide a wealth of ideas for extending the passages further and are ideal for fast finishers.
