Zedie and Zoola's Playful Universe: A Practical Guide to Supporting Children with Different Communication Styles at Playtime Vanessa Lloyd-Esenkaya,2022-12-08 Playtime is essential for children's wellbeing and provides key opportunities to make friends. Yet for some children unstructured play can present real challenges. This beautifully illustrated guide is designed to be used alongside Zedie Zoola's Playtime Cards, a pack of 25 cards containing ideas for fun playground games that draw from Zedie Zoola's Playful Universe and encourage children with different communication styles to play together. Zedie Zoola Light Up the Night a colourful storybook which draws on themes relating to friendships, neurodiversity, participation and advocacy. The cards and storybook explore the topic of communication differences through engaging characters and games. This accompanying guide offers additional advice for adults to use the cards effectively with helpful contextual information to assist in making playtimes more accessible for children with communication conditions. This is an essential resource for parents, primary school teachers and speech and language therapists as well as anyone looking for new ways to foster an inclusive environment to help children aged 6-9 with different communication styles engage and play with their peers.

Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong,2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar, the USA, the UK, Denmark and Thailand, this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture. It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities, evoking their agency and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace. The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors, specific examples of what they are doing and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts. The topics discussed include addressing structural violence, peace curriculum development, identity based conflict teaching, the history of the country, promoting inclusion, civic education, critical pedagogy, teacher agency and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding. The foreword and afterword, written by well known scholars of Myanmar, address the relevance and importance of the book vis-à-vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup.

How can art help parents temper storms of emotion, defuse sibling conflicts, get teeth brushed and raise happy, successful kids? In The Innovative Parent, Erica Curtis and Ping Ho integrate cutting-edge research, years of clinical expertise and their own parenting experience into a revolutionary yet practical guide to creative parenting. Plentiful illustrations and anecdotes bring concepts to life and show art in action with kids and parents. Together, Curtis and Ho let parents in on art therapy trade secrets to help children make sense of emotions, build connections with others, develop problem-solving skills, resolve day-to-day conflicts, process and retain information, confront fears and anxiety and much more. These are complex tasks for something as seemingly simple as making art yet therein lies the beauty of The Innovative Parent its down to earth approach is simple doable and fun      The Monthly Musical Record ,1905      Sir Joseph Banks Joseph Henry Maiden,1909      We, the Children Victoria McGuinness,2015-12-21 Welcome to the world of little ones and their secret poetic language When a five year old adopted from China can express her lack of personal value non verbally in play and name the feeling the pile of none it may be time for adults to tune into childrens play and non verbal communication on a deeper level The metaphorical language of very young children accurately reflects the story of their experiences and relationships but it is too often dismissed by adults as merely childs play Parenting plans weighty court decisions and child investigations that disregard the non verbal testimony of children can contribute to bending a childs development in the wrong direction damaging his or her life long journey Because of this miscommunication children are often forced to spend time with the very people who hurt them and endure years of feeling invalidated invisible and powerless It is common knowledge that childhood stories shape adult lives In transforming old worn out stories about ones identity the individual may discover how much happiness may be embraced by re claiming ones true identity We the Children invites the reader to begin the process of becoming empowered by first transforming any story in which he or she is a victim into one in which the reader might emerge feeling fully empowered Personal empowerment opens the imagination by converting negative messages about oneself learned in childhood into affirmations as to what is good about us now ask yourself what degree of freedom could be obtained      Silent Reading Maryland.
