Weatherproof Your Home . . . Against the Storms of Life Donna Best,2014-03-18 Deeply rooted in every woman's heart is the longing for family stability. But wanting it and having it are two different things. Many women have unresolved issues from their past that contribute to the dysfunction in their homes today. If you believe this statement may apply to you, proven solutions based on God's Word await you in this book. In Weatherproof Your Home Against the Storms of Life Donna Best presents biblical principles which will free you from self-defeating attitudes and behaviors and set you on a course that can positively affect your family for generations to come. Using intimate examples of failure and redemption in her own life, Donna will lead you through a clearly defined process of restoration to help you become a catalyst for healing in your family.

Delightful, deep, and ideal for personal or group study, Donna's book leads us to radical realizations, gut honest repentance, and renewal through spiritual refreshment. Marnie Swedberg, Mentor to Women's Ministry Leaders via Marnie.com. Weatherproof offers the link between secular and Christian recovery. I have seen lives powerfully changed through processing the biblical truths taught in this material.

Elise M. Jefferis, pastor's wife, RN, LCSW. My childhood sexual abuse led to promiscuity, abortion, drug, and alcohol addictions, and depression. I attended my first Weatherproof class when I was 41 years old. I quit after a few lessons because Donna was hitting too close to home, but I eventually completed the course five times. Today I am free, loving my husband and living to glorify Jesus Christ.
