Palmer,2018-02-27 No one knows how old the charming legends in this unusual book really are By word of mouth they have been handed down from generation to generation among the Pahute Indians one of the most ancient and primitive tribes on this continent who settled centuries ago in what is now the state of Utah In the main the legends tell of the origin of all living things which to the Indian includes the trees the flowers and grass the wind the water the moving clouds that suddenly darken into storm over the mountains as well as man and the animals of this earth They also tell why living things behave as they do Here for example is the Pahute version of why the sun rises cautiously why the coyote looks up when he howls how the beaver lost the hair on his tail how the flowers got their colors and of many more interesting phenomena In language of great beauty and simplicity the stories explain how the Pahute gods Tobats and his younger brother Shinob created the earth and ruled all its inhabitants The author William R Palmer who was taken into the tribe as a token of gratitude for his work in securing better living conditions for the dwindling number of Pahutes in Utah today listened to the legends as they are still related around Pahute campfires At last and only after his Indian brothers were certain he would not misinterpret them he obtained their permission to translate the stories into English and so to make a book of them Here then is a rare collection in which young and old alike are sure to find hours of enjoyment This book makes a significant contribution to that all too scant segment of our literature the folk tales of the first Americans For this and other historical contributions Dr Palmer was given the highest recognition of an honorary doctorate degree by Utah State University Baily's Magazine of Sports and Pastimes ,1896 The Churchman's Monthly Review and Chronicle ,1846 Preacher and Homiletic Monthly ,1918 The Homiletic Review ,1918 Baily's Magazine of Sports & Pastimes ,1896 Report of Deputation Sent by the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. in the Summer of 1915 to Visit the Missions in Siam and the Philippine Islands, and on the Way Home to Stop at Some of the Stations in Japan, Korea and China; Presented by Mr. Robert E.
