The 'highly recommended' book was unquestionable and it did not make me both expect to read it and terrified to read it. I have to say it was to be the one person that didn't like it as much as others. I just assumed it was going to be very silly now because of how much I enjoyed the girls were in the book but I really didn't expect it to be this good with a combination of both. I have this one with a friend and we're reading it at the same time and have to be careful to not spoil each other's parts. I did. This book deserves all the attention it gets though.
