Sully is ready to get out of Hearst, Pennsylvania. With a fashion internship secured, the gender-nonconforming eighteen-year-old is trading in their stifling small town for the big city. Sully even sells their beloved car to Bread or Brad, the most boring and maybe only other gay kid in town. When Sully's internship goes up in smoke, they're trapped in Hearst with no cash and no car. Desperate, they go to the thrift store, their personal sanctuary. There they discover a vintage bag like put this baby in an airtight case at the MET vintage. If Sully can authenticate it, the resale value would be enough for a new life in the city. But when they begin to investigate, Sully finds themselves haunted. Literally. With the ghost of Rufus, a drag performer from the fifties with no memory of how he died, standing, no, floating in their bedroom. Sully's summer has a new purpose: 1. help this ghostly honey unlock his past and move on, and 2. make bank. After all, the Real Real doesn't take poltergeist purses. With Rufus in tow and Brad, who's looking pretty scrumptious these days, playing chauffeur, Sully delves into the history of the town. They're so desperate to escape. Only to discover that there might be more to Hearst than they ever knew. A quirky, passionate, rebellious, and quick-witted novel. Kirkus Reviews starred review Santa Monica Cassidy Lucas, 2020-10-06 A debut novel in the vein of Liane Moriarty and Tom Perrotta about dark secrets brought to life after the mysterious death of a handsome and charismatic trainer to the elite women in Santa Monica. On the western edge of Los Angeles is the gorgeous beachside city of Santa Monica, where the sun-kissed wealthy residents seem to inhabit real-life California dreams. When movie star handsome heartthrob fitness coach Zack Doheny is found dead on the floor of his gym, the tragedy shocks the elite community, especially those who'd spent many hours each week exercising with the charismatic trainer. As the narrative flashes back to the months leading up to Zack's death, it quickly becomes clear that things in this coastal paradise are not as glittering as they seem. Lettie, Zack's secret half-sister and an undocumented housekeeper for the toned, entitled women of Santa Monica, holds her brother responsible for a horrific family accident and desperately needs his money to prevent her deportation. Regina, type-A exercise addict and entrepreneur, will do anything to get out of debt and to claim Zack for herself. And Mel, a New York City transplant who finds herself forty pounds heavier and far more cynical than the lithe women of Santa Monica, discovers an electric attraction to Zack that threatens to disrupt his bond with Regina and upend Mel's own marriage. As these residents of Santa Monica begin to crack under the stress of their secrets, one question hangs above it all:
