The Essential Guide to SSAT (Upper/Middle) Reading Comprehension J.

Stevenson, 2020-01-24 Reading is perhaps the most important skill on the SSAT Most of the commonly available SSAT prep material addresses the symptoms rather than the problem of slow reading resulting only in incremental improvements in your Reading Comprehension performance You simply cannot improve your SSAT RC performance without addressing the underlying causes of slow reading and getting rid of bad reading habits I have come across scores of smart students who did well in All sections of the SSAT except the RC And this is primarily because reading skills take time to develop and you need to thoroughly understand your reading habits and focus on improvement areas Over the years I have closely observed which techniques methods result in maximum improvement in reading skills in the minimum time These concepts are now included in the Essential Guide to SSAT Reading Comprehension This book focuses not only on the reading techniques but also on how to apply these techniques to solving the various types of SSAT passages and questions This guide has been especially written from real life experience teaching the nuances of Reading Comprehension to hundreds of students Student Edition
