Gale,2017-07-25 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1991 Teaching Middle School Language Arts Anna J. Small Roseboro,2010-04-16 Teaching Middle School Language Arts is the first book on teaching middle school language arts for multiple intelligences and related 21st century literacies in technologically and ethnically diverse communities More than 670 000 middle school teachers grades six through eight are responsible for educating nearly 13 million students in public and private schools Thousands more teachers join these ranks annually especially in the South and West where ethnic populations are ballooning Teachers and administrators seek practical time efficient ways of teaching language arts to 21st century adolescents in increasingly multicultural technologically diverse socially networked communities They seek sound understanding practical advice and proven strategies for connecting diverse literature to 21st century societies while meeting state and professional standards Teaching Middle School Language Arts provides strategies and resources that work

Roseboro's book provides an entire academic year of inspiring theory and instruction in multimedia reading writing and speaking for the 21st century literacies that are increasingly required in the United States and Canada. An appendix includes supplementary documents to adapt or adopt and a companion web site is designed to continue communication with readers.

Teaching Young Adult Literature Today Judith A. Hayn, Jeffrey S. Kaplan, 2012-03-15 Teaching Young Adult Literature Today introduces the reader to what is current and relevant in the plethora of good books available for adolescents. More importantly literary experts illustrate how teachers everywhere can help their students become lifelong readers by simply introducing them to great reads smart, insightful, and engaging books that are specifically written for adolescents. Hayn, Kaplan, and their contributors address a wide range of topics: how to avoid common obstacles to using YAL; selecting quality YAL for classrooms while balancing these with curriculum requirements; engaging disenfranchised readers; pairing YAL with technology as an innovative way to teach curriculum standards across all content areas. Contributors also discuss more theoretical subjects such as the absence of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and questioning (LGBTQ) young adult literature in secondary classrooms and contemporary YAL that responds to the changing expectations of digital generation readers who want to blur the boundaries between page and screen.
