Teaching, 2002      Comparative Judicial Review Erin F. Delaney, Rosalind Dixon, 2018 Constitutional courts around the world play an increasingly central role in day to day democratic governance Yet scholars have only recently begun to develop the interdisciplinary analysis needed to understand this shift in the relationship of constitutional law to politics This edited volume brings together the leading scholars of constitutional law and politics to provide a comprehensive overview of judicial review covering theories of its creation mechanisms of its constraint and its comparative applications including theories of interpretation and doctrinal developments This book serves as a single point of entry for legal scholars and practitioners interested in understanding the field of comparative judicial review in its broader political and social context      The Burial Record of Prehistoric Liangshan in Southwest China Anke Hein, 2016-12-13 This book proposes a new model and scheme of analysis for complex burial material and applies it to the prehistoric archaeological record of the Liangshan region in Southwest China that other archaeologists have commonly given a wide berth regarding it as too patchy too inhomogeneous and overall too unwieldy to work with The model treats burials as composite objects considering the various elements separately in their respective life histories The application of this approach to the rich and diverse archaeological record of the Liangshan region serves as a test of this new form of analysis This volume thus pursues two main aims to advance the understanding of the archaeology of the immediate study area which has been little examined and to present and test a new scheme of analysis that can be applied to other bodies of material

Analysis of the first book of Samuel Lewis Hughes, 1885     The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art , 1907     Crossing Boundaries Eric Cambridge, Jane Hawkes, 2017-04-30

Interdisciplinary studies are increasingly widely recognised as being among the most fruitful approaches to generating original perspectives on the medieval past In this major collection of 27 papers contributors transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries to offer new approaches to a number of themes ranging in time from late antiquity to the high Middle Ages The main focus is on material culture but also includes insights into the compositional techniques of Bede and the Beowulf poet and the strategies adopted by anonymous scribes to record information in unfamiliar languages Contributors offer fresh insights into some of the most iconic survivals from the period from the wooden doors of Sta Sabina in Rome to the Ruthwell Cross and from St Cuthbert's coffin to the design of its final resting place the Romanesque cathedral at Durham Important thematic surveys reveal early medieval Welsh and Pictish carvers interacting with the political and intellectual concerns of the wider Insular and continental world Other contributors consider what it is to be Viking revealing how radically present perceptions shape our understanding of the past how recent archaeological work reveals the inadequacy of the traditional categorisation of the Vikings as incomers and how recontextualising Viking material culture can lead to unexpected insights into famous historical episodes such as King Edgar's boat trip on the Dee Recent landmark finds notably the runic inscribed Saltfleetby spindle whorl and the sword pommel from Beckley are also published here for the first time in comprehensive analyses which will remain the fundamental discussions of these spectacular objects for many years to come This book will be indispensable reading for everyone interested in medieval culture
