Shuster's view of anachronism thereby provokes an assessment of the world and our place in it. A particular understanding of Jewish philosophy emerges not only through the traditions it encompasses but also through an understanding of the relationship between humans and their world. In the end, Levinas's suggestion is examined theoretically as much as practically, revealing what's at stake for Judaism as much as for the world.

Conceptions of Truth Wolfgang Künne, 2003-06-06 Truth is one of the most debated topics in philosophy. Wolfgang Künne presents a comprehensive critical examination of all major theories. Conceptions of Truth is organized around a flow chart comprising sixteen key questions ranging from 'Is truth a property?' to 'Is truth epistemically constrained?' Künne expounds and engages with the ideas of many thinkers from Aristotle and the Stoics to Continental analytic philosophers like Bolzano, Brentano, and Kotarbinski, to such leading figures in current debates as Dummett, Putnam, Wright, and Horwich. He explains many important distinctions between varieties of correspondence, for example, between different conceptions of making true, between various kinds of eternalism and temporalism, which have so far been neglected in the literature. Künne argues that it is possible to give a satisfactory, modest account of truth without invoking problematic notions like correspondence, fact, or meaning. And he offers a novel argument to support the realist claim that truth outruns justifiability. The clarity of exposition and the wealth of examples will make Conceptions of Truth an invaluable and stimulating guide for advanced students and scholars in metaphysics, epistemology, and the philosophy of language.

Philosophy of Mind Jaegwon Kim, 2018-04-19 This book explores a range of issues in the philosophy of mind, with the mind-body problem as the main focus. It serves as a stimulus to the reader to engage with the problems of the mind and try to come to terms with them, and examines Descartes's mind-body dualism.
