Ageism in Youth Studies Gayle Kimball, 2017-05-11 Ageism is prevalent in a great deal of current scholarship in the social sciences as scholars fault youth for being delinquent or politically apathetic. Researchers ignore young people's actual voices despite their leadership in recent global uprisings, some of which unseated entrenched dictators. Neoliberalism must be exposed in its focus on youth subcultures and styles rather than economic barriers caused by growing inequality and rising youth unemployment rates. Ageism in Youth Studies also discusses the debate about Generation We or Me and if Millennials are narcissistic. Resources about global youth studies are included along with the results of the author's surveys and interviews with over 4,000 young people from 88 countries.

Feature Films in English Language Teaching Britta Viebrock, 2016-07-11 Feature Films in English Language Teaching deals with the use of motion pictures in the advanced EFL/English as a foreign language classroom. It provides a general introduction to film literacy and explains the rationale, methods, and objectives of working with feature films. In addition, the book contains in-depth considerations on sixteen selected films which are grouped regionally: Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, USA, Great Britain. Each chapter describes the topical focus of the film and its central theme and provides background information on social, historical, political, and geographical issues. A profound analysis of selected scenes lays the foundation for considerations on the teaching potential of the film. In a download section, the chapters are complemented with ready-to-use teaching materials on film-specific aspects: narrative, dramatic, and cinematographic dimensions, which are organised as pre-while-post viewing activities. A glossary on technical terms for film analysis completes the volume.
