William Shakespeare, 2017-10-25 Excerpt from Shakespeare's Macbeth The manner of preparation of this book needs a word of explanation Dr John Henry Boynton of Syracuse University was to have been the sole editor but in May 1898 he died very suddenly The text the notes and the glossary he left practically in the form in which they now are of the introduction nothing appeared except a table of contents Yet it is hoped that even from this incomplete product his promise as a scholar may be recognized His work has been revised and the introduction added by one of his friends and fellow students Dr W A Neilson of Bryn Mawr To Dr Neilson's generous activity the friends of Dr Boynton owe grateful recognition About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
