Theoretical Models and Processes of Literacy Misty Sailors, Donna E. Alvermann, 2018-10-03 The Seventh Edition of this foundational text represents the most comprehensive source available for connecting multiple and diverse theories to literacy research broadly defined and features both cutting edge and classic contributions from top scholars Two decades into the 21st century the Seventh Edition finds itself at a crossroads and differs from its predecessors in three major ways the more encompassing term literacy replaces reading in the title to reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era the focus is on conceptual essays rather than a mix of essays and research reports in earlier volumes and most notably contemporary literacy models and processes enhance and extend earlier theories of reading and writing Providing a tapestry of models and theories that have informed literacy research and instruction over the years this volume's strong historical grounding serves as a springboard from which new perspectives are presented The chapters in this volume have been selected to inspire the interrogation of literacy theory and to foster its further evolution This edition is a landmark volume in which dynamic dialogic and generative relations of power speak directly to the present generation of literacy theorists and researchers without losing the historical contexts that preceded them Some additional archival essays from previous editions are available on the book's eResource New to the Seventh Edition Features chapters on emerging and contemporary theories that connect directly to issues of power and contrasts new models against more established counterparts New chapters reflect sweeping changes in how readers and writers communicate in a digital era Slimmer volume is complemented by some chapters from previous editions available online

Theoretical Models and Processes of Reading Donna E. Alvermann, Norman Unrau, Robert B. Ruddell, 2013 The sixth edition of this landmark reference represents classic and trend setting scholarship that is among the best in the field Through careful evaluation of reader surveys and focus groups the editors have extended the book's reach into domains of research and instruction that affect practitioners graduate students literacy teacher educators and researchers Over half of the chapters in this edition are new to Theoretical Models and Processes of Reading and eight of these new chapters were specially commissioned for this volume Twenty percent of the chapters from previous editions have been revised by their authors to reflect current research and instructional developments in the field Questions for Reflection accompany each chapter to assist readers in transforming their current knowledge base through discussion and deeper thinking about theory research and instruction
